Maiolo, 2017-03-14 No issue in modern history has been more intensively studied or subject to wider interpretation than the origins of the Second World War A conflict involving three arguably four major aggressor Powers operating simultaneously but largely separately on two continents inevitably raises complex theories and debates Each participating power has its own history and each one must take account of various influences upon the behaviour of its soldiers and statesmen His wide ranging collection of original essays each by an international expert in their field covers all aspects of the subject and highlights the controversy that continues to characterise current thinking on the origins of the war Going beyond the usual Eurocentric approach Part I examines the roles of all seven of the Great Powers including Japan and the USA as well as the parts played by several of the lesser Powers such as Czechoslovakia Poland and China Part II contains chapters which explore key themes that cannot be fully understood within the context of any single country These themes include the role of ideology propaganda intelligence armaments economics diplomacy the neutral states peace movements and the social science approach to war Written in clear jargon free prose together these essays provide a comprehensive single volume text for students and teachers and are essential reading for all with an interest in the debates surrounding the causes of World War Two The EU, NATO and the Libya Conflict Stefano Marcuzzi, 2021-12-24 This book explores the causes and implications of the Libyan crisis since the anti Gaddafi uprisings of 2011 from the perspective of the EU and NATO It asks the question of why those organizations failed to stabilize the country despite the serious challenges posed by the protracted crisis to European and transatlantic stakes in the region This book argues that such failure originated in a twofold problem common to both organizations their prioritization of legitimacy over strategy and their path dependence the insufficient degree of adaptation to meet the different needs of the crisis Through a critical and integrated analysis of official sources and extensive interviews with EU NATO UN and national government officials and militaries as well as from NGO personnel Libyan institutions and civil society and media the volume brings the perspective of both state and non state actors to the fore It reveals how wrong assumptions and centrifugal forces within the EU and NATO hampered initiatives and how the inability to use hard power judiciously and effectively in an increasingly complex and multifaceted scenario worsened the crisis This allowed for unprecedented influence of regional and global competitors such as Egypt the United Arab Emirates UAE Turkey and Russia in the richest African country This book will be of key interest for scholars and students of Libya and North Africa NATO the European Union security and conflict studies Middle East studies migration terrorism peacebuilding and more broadly international relations The Defence and Fall of Singapore Brian Farrell, 2017-01-01 Shortly after midnight on 8 December 1941 two divisions of crack troops of the Imperial Japanese Army began a seaborne invasion of southern Thailand and northern Malaya Their assault developed into a
