Muslim Women and Islamic Family Law Islam Uddin,2025-03-18 This book investigates the practice of Islamic family law among Muslim women in a minority context Muslims living as a minority often practise Islamic family law in a private capacity following customary laws from their countries of origin The invocation and operation of law in this context is however understudied and little understood In response this book provides an empirical study of the practice of Islamic family law in Britain The book analyses the lived experiences of Muslim women and their interactions with the processes of marriage and divorce Focusing centrally on Muslim women s agency and legal consciousness the book is based on in depth interviews with Muslim women and with relevant professionals as well as observations of Sharia Council hearings and the analysis of related documentation The book thus offers a rich and nuanced account of how Muslim women currently navigate marriage marital discord dispute resolution divorce and post divorce offering insights that will better facilitate just outcomes for them This book will be of interest to scholars students and researchers in the fields of Islamic family law in minority contexts as well as legal practitioners policymakers and community activists working in this area

Religion and Politics in Russia: A Reader Marjorie Mandelstam Balzer,2015-01-28 Russia is not only vast it is also culturally diverse the core of an empire that spanned Eurasia In addition to the majority Russian Orthodox and various other Christian groups the Russian Federation includes large communities of Muslims Jews Buddhists and members of other religious groups some with ancient historical roots All are in a state of ferment and securing formal state recognition for specific communities is often daunting This collection provides entry into the diversity of Russia s religious communities Marjorie Mandelstam Balzer s introduction to the volume illuminates major political social and cultural anthropological trends The book is organized by religious tradition or identity with further thematic perspectives on each set of readings The authors include ethnologists sociologists political analysts and religious leaders from many regions of the Federation They analyze the changing dynamics of religion and politics within each community and in the context of the current drive to recentralize both political and religious authority in Moscow Topical coverage extends from reassertions of Russian Orthodoxy to activities of Christian and Muslim missionaries to the revival of many other religions including indigenous shamanic ones

Adjudicating Family Law in Muslim Courts Elisa Giunchi,2013-12-04 While there are many books on Islamic family law the literature on its enforcement is scarce This book focuses on how Islamic family law is interpreted and applied by judges in a range of Muslim countries Sunni and Shi a as well as Arab and non Arab It thereby aids the understanding of shari a law in practice in a number of different cultural and political settings It shows how the existence of differing views of what shari a is as well as the presence of a vast body of legal material which judges can refer to make it possible for courts to interpret Islamic law in creative and innovative ways

It's Not About the Burqa Mariam Khan,2019-02-21 It s Not About the Burqa is an anthology of frank and insightful essays by Muslim women about the contemporary Muslim female experience Passionate angry self effacing nuanced and utterly compelling in every single way NIKESH SHUKLA editor of The Good Immigrant When was the last time you heard a Muslim woman speak for herself without a filter In 2016 Mariam Khan read that David Cameron had linked the radicalization of Muslim men to the traditional submissiveness of Muslim women Mariam felt pretty sure she didn't know a single Muslim woman who would describe herself that way Why was she hearing about Muslim women from people who were neither Muslim nor female Years later the state of the national discourse has deteriorated even further and Muslim women's voices are still pushed to the fringes the figures leading the discussion are white and male Taking one of the most politicized and misused words associated with Muslim women and Islamophobia It's Not About the Burqa is poised to change all that Here are voices you won't see represented in the national news headlines seventeen Muslim women speaking frankly about the hijab and wavering faith about love and divorce about feminism queer identity sex and the twin threats of a disapproving community and a racist country With a mix of British and international women writers from activist Mona Eltahawy's definition of a revolution to journalist and broadcaster Saima Mir telling the story of her experience of arranged marriage from author Sufiya Ahmed on her Islamic feminist icon to playwright Afshan D Souza Lodhi's moving piece about her relationship with her hijab these essays are funny warm sometimes sad and often angry and each of them is a passionate declaration calling time on the oppression the lazy stereotyping the misogyny and the Islamophobia What does it mean exactly to be a Muslim woman in the West today According to the media it's all about the burqa Here's what it's really about
