- 1.1 Internationalization of Firms - This case presentation discusses how a multinational firm's local and global strategies contribute to its international growth and success. International growth is achieved through various means, including organic growth, acquisitions, and strategic alliances. The case illustrates the importance of understanding local markets and cultures in international expansion.
Discussion Questions:
1. How does internationalization contribute to a firm's growth and success?
2. What are the challenges of internationalization?
3. How can a firm overcome these challenges?
4. What are the benefits of internationalization?
5. How can a firm measure its international success?
- 1.2 Globalization and Internationalization - This case presentation discusses the relationship between globalization and internationalization. It explores how globalization has led to increased international trade and investment, and how this has affected multinational firms. The case also discusses the challenges of internationalization in a globalized world.
Discussion Questions:
1. How is globalization related to internationalization?
2. What are the benefits of globalization?
