Milestones in Green Transition and Climate Compatible Development in Eastern and Southern Africa E. Mukuna,A. Shisanya,2015-12-29 It is widely recognised that climate change poses significant serious threats to sustained economic growth and agricultural development poverty reduction food security and political stability globally Nowhere are these challenges more marked than in Africa where two thirds of all available land is classified either as desert or dry land in relation to which the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC 2013 has classified the continent as the most vulnerable to climate change variability This anthology is a product of a call from OSSREA to collate evidence based researches in a book in a bid to assess how far countries in eastern and southern Africa are implementing the UNFCCC Rio 20 Agenda 21 and other global and Africa wide decisions concerning the need to address climate change This will contribute to post 2015 development agenda for sustainable development goals SDGs in which climate change and disaster risk reduction will be priority areas of focus We hope this book will serve as a valuable tool for experts advisers and policymakers in pursuing effective green growth policies and practices and achieving climate compatible development and in doing so inspire readers to choose a more sustainable pathway for humanity It will also help in looking at climate change as both a challenge and opportunity for development Further this book aims at stimulating more research in climate compatible development and climate financing which have put most countries at crossroads

The Role of Coloniality, Decoloniality, and Education in Shaping Perspectives on Extremism Helal Hossain Dhali,2024-03-19 This book extends a comprehensive overview of the treatment of extremism in education in Bangladesh using a study of perceptions among students to explore proactive measures for the prevention of various types and forms of extremism prevalent among youth It offers a critical holistic and student centred study of the role of formal education in shaping perceptions of extremism and intersectional differences among individuals drawing on data from university students The author employs post colonial theory and multicultural educational approaches to highlight how understandings of extremism differ across young adults and policymakers Ultimately it demonstrates that students overall understanding of extremism is much broader than that of policymakers and how understandings differ between male and female students at the intersection of rural and urban locations and socio economic positions As such it foregrounds a need to involve and organize formal education as a proactive means to raise awareness and counter all forms of extremism through incorporating specific teaching strategies into pedagogical practices to foster an anti communalist humanistic critical multicultural and cosmopolitan outlook among students It will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests across multicultural education comparative and international education the sociology of education extremism and conflict and peace studies

Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed,Marcina Singh,2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa's evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book's critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work

Social and Ethnic Inequalities in the Cypriot Education System Areti Stylianou, David Scott, 2019-06-11 Accommodating the diversity of learners in mainstream schooling and providing high quality education for all inclusive education is prioritised at international and European levels as a human rights issue and as a reform strategy which tackles inequalities and promotes social cohesion within both schools and wider society This book advances critical realist ideas in empirical research in order to close the theory practice gap and shift the emphasis from epistemology to ontology with regard to teachers empowerment to provide inclusive education With a focus on the school context rather than the agency of the individual teacher the authors use empirical data from case studies to demonstrate teachers disempowerment as real and rooted in features of reality Offering a unified critical realist model the book challenges taken for granted ideas and practices concerning the empowerment of teachers in inclusive education and seeks to set the ground for a more holistic and inclusive educational change

Banking and Finance Dispute Resolution in Hong Kong Sau Wai Law, 2023-08-25 This book examines the concept of naming blaming claiming in the application of arbitration for private banking dispute resolution The author focuses on examining this issue using Hong Kong as a case in point blending theory and empirical evidence to unveil how disputes are resolved within the banking and finance industry which will enable them to explore possible effective and efficient mechanisms to resolve financial disputes The book offers a comprehensive review of the laws and regulations governing the private banking industry in Hong Kong and selected jurisdictions as well as how they are implemented It examines the clients perceptions through an innovative methodology for empirical studies Describing how clients react to the laws and regulations and the potential adverse impacts to the stability of the banking industry the author identifies possible factors that could trigger another financial crisis Synthesising his analysis the author proposes newly discovered self corrective mechanisms embedded among clients and concludes with policy recommendations Directly relevant to banking practitioners particularly legal and compliance departments and senior management the book is also written for legal professionals interested in the practices of dispute resolution in banking and finance Additional readerships will include bank regulators government officials policy makers researchers and those involved in courses in banking and financial law as well as Arbitration and Dispute Resolution Journal of American Indian Education 54. 3 K.
