Reading for the Plot Peter Brooks, 1984 Dante's Masterplot and Alternative Narratives in the Commedia Nicolò Crisafi, 2022

Alongside traditional notions of Dante's trademark plurality of linguistic registers and styles this book argues that his narrative pluralism can and should play a key role in contemporary and future readings of the Commedia

Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman, Manfred Jahn, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-06-10

The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource

Dual Narrative Dynamics Dan Shen, 2022-12-30

Combining narratological and stylistic methods this book theorizes dual narrative dynamics consisting of plot development and covert progression and demonstrates the consequences for the interpretation of literary works In narratives with such dynamics writers work simultaneously with overt and covert trajectories of signification establishing a range of relationships between them The two parallel narrative movements may complement contradict or even subvert each other and these relationships significantly influence readers understanding not just of events but also of characters themes and aesthetic values The book provides a systematic theoretical account of such previously neglected dual narrative dynamics substantiated and enriched by the textual analysis of works by Ambrose Bierce Kate Chopin Franz Kafka and Katherine Mansfield The study explores the many ways that these authors have used dual dynamics to increase the power of their narratives In addition the book identifies the challenges such dual dynamics present not only for narratology but also for stylistics and translation studies and it develops sound and provocative proposals for meeting those challenges In taking an interdisciplinary approach this book will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of narrative and literary theory literary criticism literary stylistics and translation studies

Writing the Land Daniel G. Payne, 2008 At the time of his death in 1921 John Burroughs 1837 1921 was America's most beloved nature writer a best selling author whose friends and admirers included Walt Whitman Theodore Roosevelt John Muir Henry Ford and Thomas Edison Burroughs was second only to Emerson in fostering the nature study movement of the nineteenth century and the popularity of his work inspired Houghton Mifflin to publish or reissue the work of numerous other nature writers including that of Thoreau and Muir His first collection of essays Wake Robin was published in 1871 and over the next fifty years Burroughs wrote almost two dozen books and hundreds of essays not only on nature but on literature travel philosophy religion and science By the turn of the century Burroughs was America's most beloved nature writer whose friends and admirers included Walt Whitman Theodore Roosevelt John Muir Henry Ford and Thomas Edison Burroughs died in 1921 while on a train ride back to his New York from California His final words Are we home yet were a remarkably fitting coda to the career of a writer so closely identified with his native Catskill region of New York State In many of his essays Burroughs explores the woods and fields of home and in doing so like Henry Thoreau and his explorations of Concord Massachusetts he transcends the local and examines the universal theme of our relation with nature and our native landscape Burroughs's emphasis on place and the local now seems modern once again as the current interest in bioregionalism and climate change demonstrates it has become increasingly evident that thinking locally is thinking globally Since 1992 the SUNY College at Oneonta has hosted the biannual John Burroughs Nature Conference and Seminar Sharp Eyes which honors the influence of Burroughs on American nature writing Distinguished keynote speakers who have addressed the conference include John Elder John Tallmadge Joy Harjo Robin Wall Kimmerer Edward Kanze James Perrin Warren and Edward J. Renahan Jr The scope of the conference is not limited solely to Burroughs however as each year the writers and scholars in attendance direct their attention toward a particular issue of significance to contemporary nature writers and scholars of environmental literature The theme of this collection Writing the Land John Burroughs and his Legacy was featured in the 2006 conference and includes essays on John Burroughs as well as essays on the work of other writers who like Burroughs are linked closely through their work to a particular landscape or region The third and final section of this book features invited essays by three distinguished scholars John Tallmadge Robert Beuka and Charlotte Zo Walker who consider the topic of what writing about the land and nature means from three different perspectives urban suburban and rural

Approaches to Literature Through Literary Form Paula Kay Montgomery, 1995-11-10 The form in which literature is fashioned and presented often determines its impact Approaches to Literature through Literary Form discusses the various structures of literature narration exposition persuasion procedure and description and identifies sources that will engage student interest Activities teaching techniques and resources are provided for introducing the forms of literature that are explored

Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little Town John E. Miller, 1994 As Laura Ingalls Wilder anticipated her widely loved stories of her prairie childhood have become much more than a nostalgic blend of myth memories and autobiography As John Miller reveals they have much to tell us about the historical realities of day to day living and attitudes in the nineteenth century History and literature are closely intertwined Miller contends Here he illustrates how Wilder's novels enhance our understanding of history and how simultaneously a historical perspective framed Wilder's fiction He shows how Wilder interwove content and form to produce a sentimental and compelling yet nuanced and believable picture of family life on the agricultural frontier
