Since then, he's become an advocate for modern families and working fathers. In All In, he explores the changing face of fatherhood and what it means for our individual lives, families, workplaces, and society. Fatherhood today is far different from previous generations. Stay-at-home dads are increasingly common, and growing numbers of men are working part-time or flextime schedules to spend more time with their children. Even the traditional breadwinner dad is being transformed. Dads today are more emotionally and physically involved on the home front. They are all in, and like mothers, they are struggling with work-life balance and doing it all. Journalist and dad columnist Josh Levs explains that despite these unprecedented changes, our laws, corporate policies, and gender-based expectations in the workplace remain rigid. They are preventing both women and men from living out the equality we believe in and hurting businesses in the process. Women have done a great job of speaking out about this. Levs, whose fight for parental leave made front-page news across the country, argues it's now time for men to join in. Combining

Levs personal experiences with investigative reporting and frank conversations with fathers about everything from work life to money to sex All In busts popular myths lays out facts uncovers the forces holding all of us back and shows how we can all join together to change them
