

CHAPTER ONE

INTRODUCTION

This chapter introduces the research work by discussing the background of the study, problem area, problem statement, significance of the study, scope, and limitations. Also contained in this chapter are the aim of the research, the research objectives, and the research methodology employed to achieve the research objectives.

1.1 BACKGROUND TO THE STUDY

The World is experiencing an information knowledge revolution that is fundamentally transforming how human activities are carried out. Governments worldwide are adopting e-government as a means of improving their services to businesses and citizens, promoting economic and social development, and enhancing the effectiveness and efficiency of government operations (Balogun, 2006).

The computer plays a vital role in the development of any company it also saves some of the complex problems that are been faced by man and processes voluminous data within a short time or at an incredible speed (Kumar, 2016).

The rapid advancement of mobile technology has significantly transformed various aspects of our lives, including how we engage in commerce and interact within our communities. College and university students, in particular, form a vibrant and dynamic community that often requires a convenient and efficient platform to buy, sell, and trade items within their local campus environment. Traditional methods of classified advertisements and physical bulletin boards are no longer adequate to meet the diverse needs and preferences of modern students.

The emergence of mobile applications has opened up new possibilities for facilitating peer-to-peer transactions and fostering community engagement among students. The Brillouin Scattering Part 1 ,2022-06-24 Brillouin Scattering Volume 109 in the Semiconductors and Semimetal series marks the centenary of Leon Brillouin s seminal 1922 paper which provided a detailed theory of the effect that now bears his name Stimulated Brillouin Scattering SBS is the strongest third order optical nonlinearity and plays an important role in contemporary science and applications particularly lasers communications and fibre optics as well as playing a new role in experimental physics and the life sciences This volume provides a foundational perspective on Brillouin scattering starting with a historical review of Brillouin scattering the theory of SBS and the convergence between SBS and Optomechanics We then consider SBS in several different waveguide geometries including photonic crystal fibres integrated optics and superfluids From the leading researchers in the field Historical theoretical and scientific perspective Pedagogical

Academic Migration, Discipline Knowledge and Pedagogical Practice Colina Mason,Felicity Rawlings-Sanaei,2013-11-26 This volume makes a distinctive and innovative contribution to the globalisation of higher education literature by highlighting the myriad benefits of academic migration Sixteen academic migrants across the Asia Pacific region reflect on their experiences and wisdom gained across geographical cultural and disciplinary domains Each one provides an authentic account of ways in which their experiences and insights have benefited their host institutions and enhanced their pedagogical practice The groundbreaking volume calls for a shift in academic culture one in which academic migrants are respected for their cultural social and intellectual resources their enhanced interpretive ability and their capacity to view the world through multiple lenses Are these not the characteristics of educators which universities seek in their efforts to internationalise their institutions and develop in their students an understanding of global citizenship The volume forges new territory in articulating the relationship between academic migrants conceptual understanding and the construction of knowledge The following themes are addressed in this book Migration of Ideas Conceptual Understanding and Pedagogical Enrichment Indigenous Pedagogies and Bridging Worldviews Changing Academic Identities and Reshaping Pedagogies Teaching Practice and the Academic Diaspora

Handbook of the Economics of Art and Culture Victor A. Ginsburgh,David Throsby,2006-09-13 Over the last 30 or 40 years a substantial literature has grown up in which the tools of economic theory and analysis have been applied to problems in the arts and culture Economists who have surveyed the field generally locate the origins of contemporary cultural economics as being in 1966 the year of publication of the first major work in modern times dedicated specifically to the economics of the arts It was a book by Baumol and Bowen which showed that economic analysis could illuminate the supply of and demand for artistic services the contribution of the arts sector to the economy and the role of public policy Following the appearance of the Baumol and Bowen work interest in the economics of the arts grew steadily embracing areas such as demand for the arts the economic functions of artists the role of the nonprofit sector and other areas Cultural economics also expanded to include the cultural or entertainment industries the media movies the publishing industry popular music as well as heritage and museum management property right questions in particular copyright and the role of new communication technologies such as the internet The field is therefore located at the crossroads of several disciplines economics and management but also art history art philosophy sociology and law The Handbook is placed firmly in economics but it also builds bridges across these various disciplines and will thus be of interest to researchers in all these different fields as well as to those who are engaged in cultural policy issues and the role of culture in the development of our societies Presents an overview of the history of art markets Addresses the value of art and consumer behavior toward acquiring art Examines the effect of art on economies of developed and developing countries around the world

The Politics of Islamism John L. Esposito, Lily Zubaidah Rahim, Naser Ghobadzadeh, 2017-11-09 This book offers a nuanced and multi-layered approach towards comprehending the possibilities of democratization or likelihood of authoritarian resilience in the Muslim world The volume highlights the complex diversity within Islamist movements and parties characterised by internal tensions struggles and contestations The very existence of this diversity within and among Islamist movements and their general willingness to partake in mainstream politics signals an important transformation in the Muslim world over recent decades It demonstrates that the Muslim world has gravitated from the simplistic focus on the compatibility or incompatibility of Islam and democracy Islamist movements and parties embody the multiple manifestations and trajectories within political Islam The granular case studies and theological analyses in this volume draw attention to the policy refinements socio-political reforms and ideological transformations engendered by Muslim intellectuals and Islamist movements and ideologues The diverse political landscape in the Muslim world is inextricably linked to the socio-political and theological shifts within Islamism in particular the yearning for greater social economic and political justice a yearning that lies at the core of an inclusive wasatiyyah Islam

The Sociology of Shari'a Adam Possamai, James T. Richardson, Bryan S. Turner, 2023-04-10 This edited collection focuses on the comparative analysis of the application of Shari'a in countries with Muslim minorities e.g. USA Australia Germany and Italy and majorities e.g. Malaysia Bangladesh Turkey and Morocco Most chapters in this new edition have been revised and the book as a whole has been updated to give even more international coverage This text provides a sociological and global analysis of a phenomenon that goes beyond the West versus the rest dichotomy One example of this is how included are case studies in Muslim minority countries not exclusively located in the West Although the contributors of this book come from various disciplines such as law anthropology and sociology this volume has a strong sociological focus on the analysis of Shari'a The final part of the book indeed draws out from all the case studies explored some ground-breaking theories on the sociology of Shari'a such as the application of Black Chambers and Eisenstein's sociological theories This text appeals to students and researchers working in the sociology of religion

Proceedings of the Linnean Society of New South Wales Linnean Society of New South Wales,1928 The Catholic Campaign for State Aid Michael Hogan,1978 The major domestic issue of the 1960s was education Education politics meant state aid either in terms of money spent by State and Commonwealth governments or of influence on election results etc

The Social Scientific Study of Exorcism in Christianity Giuseppe Giordan,Adam Possamai,2020-06-01 This book presents an academic analysis of exorcism in Christianity It not only explores the crisis and drama of a single individual in a fight against demonic possession but also looks at the broader implications for the society in which the possessed lives In recognition of this coverage includes case studies from various geographical areas in Europe North and South America and Oceania The contributors explore the growing significance of the rite of exorcism both in its more structured format within traditional Christian religions as well as in the less controlled and structured forms in the rites of deliverance within Neopentecostal movements They examine theories on the interaction between religion magic and science to present new and groundbreaking data on exorcism The fight against demonic possession underlines the way in which changes within the religious field such as the rediscovery of typical practices of popular religiosity challenge the expectations of the theory of secularization This book argues that if possession is a threat to the individual and to the equilibrium of the social order the ritual of exorcism is able to re establish a balance and an order through the power of the exorcist This does not happen in a social vacuum but in a consumer culture where religious groups market themselves against other faiths This book appeals to researchers in the field

Adapting Television and Literature Blythe Worthy,Paul Sheehan,2024-04-24 Adapting Television and Literature is an incisive collection of essays that explores the growing sub category of television adaptations of literature and poetics Each chapter questions inflexible notions of film literature and adaptation intertext focusing judiciously on emergent or overlooked media and literary forms These lines of enquiry embrace texts both within and beyond adaptation proper to reveal the complex relationships between literary works television adaptations and related dialogues of textual interconnectivity Adapting Television and Literature proposes in particular a re seeing of four genres pivotal to television and its history caustic comedy which claims for itself more freedoms than other forms of scripted television auteurist outlaw drama an offbeat niche genre that aligns a fixation on lawbreakers with issues of creative control young adult reinventions that vitalise this popular yet under examined area of television studies and transcultural exchanges which highlight adaptations beyond the white Anglo American programming that dominates peak TV Through these genres Adapting Television and Literature examines the creative resources of adaptation plotting future paths for enquiries into television literature and transmedial storytelling

Records Geological Survey of New South Wales,1909 Peer Review of Learning and Teaching in Higher Education Judyth Sachs,Mitch Parsell,2013-10-22 Incorporating both theoretical and practical perspectives this volume of papers explores varied aspects of peer review of teaching in higher education The section on theory features contributions from academics based in Europe North America and Australia It provides a number of models demonstrating ways in which collegial peer commentary can enhance the quality of learning and teaching The chapters examine in detail the importance of communication and leadership and deploy evidence from one on one interviews that evince the value of considering collegiality emotions attitudes and spaces in peer review The analysis shows how these factors are central to the ways in which lecturers and teachers communicate with each other to create constructive opportunities for learning The chapters on practical considerations detail the peer review process and include case studies from institutions in Africa Europe North America and Australia which focus on different areas of the topic including peer review as a quality assurance mechanism peer review in distance education peer review in foundation courses and peer review embedded within a department and across a university The book ends with an international perspective on the role of peer review in ensuring a holistic approach to quality enhancement in learning and teaching

Islamophobia and Radicalization John L. Esposito, Derya Iner, 2018-10-13 While the themes of radicalization and Islamophobia have been broadly addressed by academia to date there has been little investigation of the crosspollination between the two Islamophobia a significant catalyst or influence on radicalization and recruitment How do radicalization and Islamophobia interact operate feed one another and ultimately pull societies toward polar extremes in domestic and foreign policy The wide ranging and global contributions collected here explore these questions through perspectives grounded in sociology political theory psychology and religion The volume provides an urgently needed and timely examination of the root causes of both radicalization and Islamophobia the cultural construction and consumption of radical and Islamophobic discourses the local and global contexts that fertilize these extreme stances and finally the everyday Muslim in the shadow of these opposing but equally vociferous forces
