enseignants y compris ceux de Français Langue étrangère connaissent le célèbre triangle didactique qui illustre toute situation d'enseignement et met en évidence les multiples interactions entre l'enseignant, l'élève et le savoir. L'exploitation de ce triangle a donné lieu plus de études théoriques que pratiques. Le présent ouvrage a donc comme premier objectif de combler ce vide. L'heure où l'enseignement des langues vivantes est tributaire des recommandations du CECR Cadre Européen Commun de Référence pour les langues et des changements qui en découlent. L'ouvrage se présente donc comme un authentique trait de pédagogie contemporaine qui allie théorie et pratiques de classe et répond concrètement aux multiples interrogations des enseignants souvent désemparés face au poids des programmes officiels, aux horaires limités, aux manuels parfois inadaptés. La perspective actionnelle préconisée par le CECR et la remise en question qu'elle suggère.

L'hétérogénéité dans la classe de langue Elena Da Silva Akborisova, Louise Ouvrard, 2018-09-13

Les nouvelles réalités mondiales rendent les questions autour de l'hétérogénéité incontournables. Le développement de l'immigration, des changements culturels ou linguistiques, la professionnalisation des études supérieures, par exemple, modifient le profil des classes qui sont dorénavant constituées de publics aux niveaux de langues divers, aux parcours langagiers variés, aux langues d'origine multiples. De par sa nature, toute classe est multi-niveaux. D'une manière générale, pourtant, l'école tend à envisager cette hétérogénéité comme un handicap plutôt que comme un atout. Et selon sa sensibilité et sa conception de ce qu'est l'apprentissage, l'enseignant se positionne dans ce débat en jonglant entre approche individualisée et objectifs d'universalité. Cet ouvrage souhaite démontrer que cette qualité intrinsèque de la classe peut néanmoins être source de richesses.

Abordant ces questions fondamentales, le présent volume rassemble douze articles issus de communications présentées lors de la journée d'étude organisée par l'Unité de recherche PLIDAM EA 4514 à l'INALCO Paris le 11 mai 2017.

The Correspondence of Reginald Pole Thomas F. Mayer, 2017-09-19

Reginald Pole, 1500-1558, cardinal and archbishop of Canterbury, was at the centre of reform controversies in the mid-16th century, antagonist of Henry VIII, a leader of the reform group in the Roman Church, and nearly elected pope. Julius III was elected in his stead. His voluminous correspondence, more than 2500 items including letters to him, forms a major source for historians, not only of England but of Catholic Europe and the early Reformation as a whole. In addition to the insight they provide on political history, both secular and ecclesiastical, and on the spiritual motives of reform, they also constitute a great resource for our understanding of humanist learning and cultural patronage in the Renaissance. Hitherto, there has been no comprehensive, let alone modern or accurate, listing and analysis of this correspondence, in large part due to the complexity of the manuscript traditions and the difficulties of legibility. The present work makes this vast body of material accessible to the researcher, summarising each letter and printing key texts, usually in critical editions, together with necessary identification and comment. The first three volumes in this set will contain the correspondence; the fourth and fifth will provide a biographical companion to all persons mentioned and will together constitute a major research tool in their own right. This first volume covers the crucial turning point in Pole's career: his protracted break with Henry and the substitution of papal service for royal.

major dimension of this rupture was a profound religious conversion which took Pole to the brink of one of the defining moments of the Italian Reformation the writing of the Beneficio di Christo

Les approches didactiques en FLE Henri Portine, 2012 Les domaines d'expérience de l'espace et du temps sont certainement parmi ceux qui ont le plus intrigué l'esprit humain depuis l'Antiquité En dépit d'un véritable engouement pour leur étude en philosophie en linguistique et en psychologie les trois dernières décennies l'importante diversité de leurs représentations linguistiques et mentales d'une culture l'autre ne cesse de susciter de nouveaux débats Partant du constat que l'enseignement et ou l'appropriation des temps verbaux par positions verbales adverbiales exprimant l'espace et ou le temps est un vrai problème pour les apprenants du français cet ouvrage comporte une série d'études qui abordent la problématique de l'espace et du temps en didactique du français langue étrangère FLE Soucieux de tenir compte des particularités de l'objet sur lequel porte la didactique en l'occurrence le français les travaux ici réunis prennent les marqueurs spatiaux et temporels la fois comme objets d'analyse linguistique fine et comme sujets d'enseignement en FLE S'inscrivant dans un arrière-plan de didactique générale bien défini le volume tonnera le lecteur par son originalité qui provient d'abord de son objet d'étude peu exploré jusqu'à présent en didactique du FLE ensuite de la richesse des cadres théoriques adoptés des supports d'enseignements utilisés des solutions innovantes proposées et des généralisations possibles en didactique des langues Page 4 of cover
