High-Density Housing Christian Schittich, 2012-12-17 In view of the growing number of diverse life styles the search for flexible adaptable floor plans has become a fundamental issue in residential building That the continued demand in urban centres can only be responsibly satisfied by high density housing is undisputed More than ever before building high density housing is a diverse and challenging task for planners and architects This book presents international projects which document the complexity of the task from the design of the floor plans the development and use of resources to the use of economically beneficial building systems The high quality of the architecture and construction in such residential areas can be clearly seen in the uniform illustrations of the floor plans and large scale drawings of details The introductory contributions discuss extensively the topic of floor plan design and development This book is a comprehensive review of the current state of residential building the perspectives and future developments Sustainable Energy Landscapes Sven

Stremke, Andy van den Dobbelsteen, 2012-09-12 In the near future the appearance and spatial organization of urban and rural landscapes will be strongly influenced by the generation of renewable energy One of the critical tasks will be the re integration of these sustainable energy landscapes into the existing environment which people value and want to preserve in a socially fair environmenta

The Urbanisation of the Sea Nancy Couling, Carola Hein, 2020-12-02 The book tells the story of the sea land continuum based on the case of the North Sea one of the world s most industrialised seas in which the Netherlands plays a central role The space of the North Sea is almost fully planned and has been loaded with the task of increased economic production from new and traditional maritime sectors At the same time it has been emptied of cultural signi ficance Through diverse projects from academia art literature and practice from analysis to design the book explores synergies for designing this new spatial realm Port city expert Carola Hein professor of the history of architecture urban planning at Delft University of Technology and Nancy Couling associate professor at the Bergen School of Architecture and researcher of the urbanised sea combine forces with interdisciplinary experts to guide the reader through this complex and fascinating topic Bibliographic Guide to Maps and Atlases 1996 G K HALL, G. Cities | Open Data Scott Hawken, Hoon Han, Chris Pettit, 2019-09-26 Today the world s largest economies and corporations trade in data and its products to generate value in new disruptive markets Within these markets vast streams of data are often inaccessible or untapped and controlled by powerful monopolies Counter to this exclusive use of data is a promising world wide open data movement promoting freely accessible information to share reuse and redistribute The provision and application of open data has enormous potential to transform exclusive technocratic smart cities into inclusive and responsive open cities This book argues that those who contribute urban data should benefit from its production Like the city itself the information landscape is a public asset produced through collective effort attention and resources People produce data through their engagement with the city creating digital footprints through social medial mobility applications and city sensors By opening up data there is potential to generate greater value by supporting unforeseen collaborations spontaneous urban innovations and solutions and improved decision making insights Yet achieving more open cities is made challenging by conflicting desires for urban anonymity sociability privacy and transparency This book engages with these issues through a variety of critical perspectives and presents strategies tools and case studies that enable this transformation The Architectural Review ,2006 Vocabularies for an Urbanising Planet: Theory Building through Comparison Christian Schmid,Monika Streule,2023-10-04 Cartography as an instrument for the analysis of urbanisation processes The speed scale and scope of urbanisation have increased dramatically in recent decades To decipher the rapidly changing urban territories across the planet we need a radical shift in the analytical perspective on urbanisation In this book a transdisciplinary international research team presents an expanded vocabulary of urbanisation processes through a comparison of Tokyo Hong Kong Shenzhen Dongguan Kolkata Istanbul Lagos Paris Mexico City and Los Angeles Based on a novel cartography and on detailed ethnographic and historical explorations this book systematically analyses the diversity of responses to urgent contemporary urban challenges It proposes a series of new concepts that allow us to assess the practical consequences of different urban strategies in everyday life Essential book on urbanism New evaluation models for urbanisation processes Comprehensive analyses and illustrations of the urban patterns of international metropolises Comparison of urbanisation processes in eight metropolises around the world □□□□ ,2008 American Book Publishing Record ,2005 American Overseas Guide ,1975 Harvard Design Magazine ,2006 Universal Cyclopædia and Atlas ,1909 Switzerland: Borders, communes : a brief history of the territory ,2006 The Universal Cyclopaedia ,1900 Dense+Green Urban Development Thomas Schröpfer,2025-05-06 Building on previous Dense Green publications this book explores sustainable integrated districts as models for high density high liveability cities It highlights how green elements are strategically deployed and integrated into broader systemic solutions at an urban scale Beyond identifying key factors for successful spatial implementation the book examines the planning instruments and governance arrangements enabling such developments across diverse socio spatial contexts A collaboration between the Singapore ETH Centre SUTD and ETH Zurich the publication provides in depth analyses of international case studies including one north in Singapore King s Cross in London and Quayside in Toronto It also explores urban green development within Zurich s existing fabric In depth analysis of international case studies Integrating urban and architectural design planning tools and socio spatial contexts With a foreword by Kees Christiaanse The Publisher ,1909 The New International Encyclopædia Frank Moore Colby,Talcott Williams,1917 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Chinese Calcuttawallah Sukla Basu,Kunaljeet Roy,2025-11-30 By examining the everyday geographies of ethnic identity place making and cultural landscape transformations as well as tracing the root of the Chinese community s origin through cartographic and archival records this book depicts multi cultural landscape formation in Kolkata Calcutta The authors capture how Kolkata s vibrant

Chinese community has uniquely shaped the twin Chinatowns amidst the city's diverse urban tapestry and gradually modified the adjacent cultural landscape towards a little China. As these neighbourhoods encounter modern challenges of gentrification and global connectivity, the book explores the ways in which the community, particularly its youth, navigates the complexities of maintaining a transnational identity while being deeply rooted in the local cultural milieu. From the continuous ebb and flow of migration to the fostering of hybrid identities, this analysis examines how these transformations impact community cohesion and cultural heritage. Featuring poignant individual case studies from Indian Chinese respondents, the book examines issues such as identity preservation efforts and the effects of socio-economic changes. Research techniques like adopting visual ethnographic streetscape and cognitive emotional cartography depict the everyday geography of the twin Chinatowns, illustrating how these communities claim their spaces and build connections on a global scale. Kunaljeet Roy and Sukla Basu reconnect with the essence of Kolkata's Chinese community and showcase how they navigate the challenges of a globalised world while holding onto the threads of heritage that define them as a Chinese Calcuttawallah.
