Abstract

The objective of this research is to know how repetition drill technique improves students speaking ability of the 7th grade students of SMP Negeri 5 Cinahi in academic year 2018/2019. The research was conducted using the Classroom Action Research method involving 36 students as the research subjects. The data was collected using an oral and written test within three cycles of research. Students mean score in the 1st cycle (September 4-5, 2018) is not obtained due to reasons. Students mean score in the 2nd cycle (September 11-12, 2018) is 69,10. Students mean score in the 3rd cycle (September 18-19, 2018) is 80,56. Students mean score in the 3rd cycle is more prominent than the 2nd cycle means that there is a significant improvement in students speaking ability. In conclusion, this research proved that students speaking ability could be improved through repetition drill technique.

INTRODUCTION

English has become an international language in the world, been established as a unifying language for all people in the world to communicate with each other. Therefore, currently, English is a language that is very important for everyone to learn. Usually, we deliver by talking, so it's essential for us to learn to speak in English. Speaking is an interactive process of constructing meaning that involves producing and receiving and processing information (Brown, 1994). Based on (Aristy, Hadiansyah, & Apsari, 2019) defined speaking as the most important skill of all four skills because speaking is a tool for everyone to communicate between one person to another. Without speaking, we can't make a good relationship with other people, besides that if we have a problem that can't we solve by yourself so we can share about that and get help from other. We can have a good connection with many people from anywhere through speaking.

In the other side, according to Henry Guntur Tarigan (2008) explains that speaking is a language skill that develops in the life of a child that is only preceded by listening skills, and at that time the ability to speak or say is learned. To communicate orally in English, the students should be able to use several speaking skills to express what they mean in functional oral text and very simple short monolog. However, speaking is considered as one of difficult skill in learning English. Many students have learned English for a long time since the elementary school moreover some students have learned English from kindergarten, but they still get difficulty in practicing speaking to communicate.
