Music Composition

A musical staff with five lines is set against a background of a cloudy sky. Several musical notes are scattered across the staff: a blue eighth note on the first line, a red quarter note on the second line, a blue quarter note on the second space, and a blue half note on the second space. In the bottom right corner, a small silhouette of a person wearing a hat stands on a wooden ladder, reaching up towards the staff. The entire scene is framed by a thick orange border.

Tried and true techniques that help you create popular songs, classically structured pieces, film and television scores, and more

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Music History Michael Miller, 2008-07-01 A beautifully composed journey through music history. Music history is a required course for all music students. Unfortunately, the typical music history book is dry and academic, focusing on rote memorization of important composers and works. This leads many to think that the topic is boring, but bestselling author Michael Miller proves that isn't so. This guide makes music history interesting and fun for both music students and older music lovers. Covers more than Western classical music, also includes non-Western music and uniquely American forms such as jazz. More than just names and dates, puts musical developments in
