

Organisational Knowledge Procedure

- Monitor and evaluate: Organisations should monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of the changes made to the QMS processes. This can be done through performance metrics and customer feedback.

5.4 Flow Chart

- Determine the knowledge necessary for the operation of your processes: Identify the knowledge required to ensure the effective operation of your processes, such as customer needs and expectations, regulatory requirements, and industry best practices.

Organisational Knowledge Procedure

- Identify internal and external sources of knowledge: Determine where the knowledge is located, including within your organisation (e.g., employee expertise, documented information) and outside of it (e.g., industry publications, conferences).

- Share knowledge: Share knowledge among employees and other stakeholders who require it for the effective operation of the processes. This can be done through training programs, mentoring, or other forms of communication.

- Use knowledge: Ensure that knowledge is effectively used in decision-making, problem-solving, and other activities related to the operation of your processes. Regularly review and update organisational knowledge to ensure its relevance and usefulness.

6. Criteria and Risk of 'Control of Organisational Knowledge Process'

6.1 Criteria of 'Control of Organisational Knowledge' Process

The control of the organisational knowledge process is an essential component that involves identifying, maintaining, and sharing knowledge within an organisation to improve its operations and meet customer requirements.

The criteria for the control of the organisational knowledge process include:

- Acquisition of organisational knowledge: This involves acquiring knowledge from a variety of sources, including internal and external sources, and ensuring its accuracy and relevance.
- Preservation of organisational knowledge: This involves storing and maintaining organisational knowledge, including updating and revising it as necessary.
