Assessing Health Outcomes Among Veterans of Project SHAD (Shipboard Hazard and Defense) National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Institute of Medicine, Board on the Health of Select Populations, Committee on Shipboard Hazard and Defense II (SHAD II), 2016-01-15

Between 1963 and 1969 the U S military carried out a series of tests termed Project SHAD Shipboard Hazard and Defense to evaluate the vulnerabilities of U S Navy ships to chemical and biological warfare agents These tests involved use of active chemical and biological agents stimulants tracers and decontaminants Approximately 5 900 military personnel primarily from the Navy and Marine Corps are reported to have been included in Project SHAD testing In the 1990s some veterans who participated in the SHAD tests expressed concerns to the Department of Veterans Affairs VA that they were experiencing health problems that might be the result of exposures in the testing These concerns led to a 2002 request from VA to the Institute of Medicine IOM to carry out an epidemiological study of the health of SHAD veterans and a comparison population of veterans who had served on similar ships or in similar units during the same time period In response to continuing concerns Congress in 2010 requested an additional IOM study This second study expands on the previous IOM work by making use of additional years of follow up and some analysis of diagnostic data from Medicare and the VA health care system

Classroom Assessment W. James Popham, 2005 I have an extremely high opinion of this textbook This is the only assessment text I have ever used that students actually read consistently Students frequently comment about their enjoyment of the text and their appreciation for the humor injected throughout the chapters Marcy Blackburn Cameron University The topics are presented very clearly are very well organized and are sufficiently comprehensive for pre service teachers Brian C McKeivitt Iowa State University Written in Jim Popham s characteristic witty style the Fourth Edition of Classroom Assessment addresses the range of assessments that teachers are likely to use in their classrooms The forces of accountability have changed educational assessment and this new edition now addresses the central issue of how classroom assessment can effectively benefit students when carried out in the context of accountability tests New legislation such as the No Child Left Behind Act NCLB and issues such as state standards that directly impact classroom testing and teaching are discussed to present readers with a series of practical action options In addition the text continues to analyze more traditional topics such as validity and reliability and discusses the alternative assessments used in today s classrooms
