

Cultural nationalism

As a type of ethnocentrism, cultural nationalism is the commitment to a specific culture as a source of identity and a framework for explanation.

Q: What is the main difference between ethnic group and a nation?

A: Ethnic groups are usually content to preserve their cultural identity without demanding political independence. In reality, the distinction between an 'ethnic minority' and a fully fledged 'nation' is often times blurred

Which countries would fall into this category?

UK - founded on the union composed of four 'cultural' nations: the English, the Scots, the Welsh and the Northern Irish. US - 'land of immigrants'; common allegiance to the liberal-democratic principles expressed by the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution. France - the 1789 Revolution and the principles of liberty, equality and fraternity serve as a foundation for French national identity.
