Presented to the Board of Directors

Process of Creating the Plan

ORGANIZATION is a membership-driven organization dedicated to engaging LOCAL residents in a leadership development process to provide them with the tools to improve the quality of life in their community.

Beginning in June, ORGANIZATION recruited a fund development consultant to facilitate a fundraising planning process for its Board and Staff. The process began with a development audit that identified the organization's fundraising strengths, as well as areas in which it could grow. The beginning of the process also included a Leadership Survey in which board members and the Interim Executive Director shared their vision of ORGANIZATION as an organization, highlighted its strengths, how discussed how they would make the case for ORGANIZATION, including what each sees as the best methods to go about fundraising for the organization. Information from the development audit and these surveys informed this fund development planning process.

A planning group was also established consisting of the Interim Executive Director, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, Board members BOARD MEMBER and BOARD MEMBER, and Ron Milam, the Development Consultant. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR and Ron Milam also met weekly to discuss the development of the plan. This plan is also a product of the several planning sessions this group participated in.

The primary challenge facing ORGANIZATION is that of funding; specifically, in order to continue to fulfill its mission, the organization needs to diversify and increase its funding sources. In years past, ORGANIZATION has been successful at fundraising from some of the most competitive foundations in Los Angeles. However, with over 90% of the organization's funding coming from foundation sources, ORGANIZATION is potentially at risk should these foundations withdraw their support, which could occur for a variety of reasons (stock market downturn, change in funding priorities, strong competition from other non-profits, etc.). Even if there is no short-term change in fundraising, over time, ORGANIZATIONS core funders will likely turn over, leaving the organization without a strong support base.
