

Curious George Takes a Job

By H. A. REY

Here is more about that popular monkey, Curious George!

This time George ran away from the zoo. After his escape, he decided to take a bus and find his friend, the man with the yellow hat.

George didn't find him right away, though. First, he found a restaurant — where he got mixed up in a pot full of spaghetti! Then, to make up for his mischief, he had to wash all the dishes. He did that so well, the cook introduced George to a friend who gave him a job washing the windows in an apartment house. What fun that was — until George's curiosity got the better of him again!

George may be down — and even 'out' (in this story), but seldom for long, and his admirers will laugh over his adventures, written and illustrated in the inimitable Rey manner.
