Camaradas:

Fear & Memory in the Brazilian Army and Society, 1889-1954 Shawn C. Smallman, 2002 Smallman argues that through fear and censorship Brazil's military has sought to distort its record on racial politics institutional corruption and terror campaigns Using newly available secret police reports army records and oral histories he challenges conventional Brazilian history which has typically reflected the military's own version of its role in national development Millenarian Vision, Capitalist Reality Todd A. Diacon, 1991-08-29 Why did a millenarian movement erupt in the Brazilian interior in 1912 Setting out to answer this deceptively simple question Todd A Diacon delivers a fascinating account of a culture in crisis Combining oral history with detailed archival research Millenarian Vision Capitalist Reality depicts a peasant community whose security in economic social and religious relations was suddenly disrupted by the intrusion of international capital Diacon shows how a deadly triumvirate comprised to foreign capital state power and local bosses engineered a land tenure revolution that threatened smallholders subsistence sparking rebellion among the Contestado peasants Unlike most analysis of millenarian movements Diacon combines a material analysis with a careful exploration of the movement's millenarian ideology to demonstrate how a particular combination of external and internal forces produced a crisis of values in the Contestado society Such a crisis Diacon concludes gave a special power to the millenarian vision that promised not only outward reform but inner salvation as well This work offers a significant contribution to the literature of millenarian movements popular religion peasant rebellions and the transition to capitalism in Brazil !Camaradas!
