second edition Gender and Women's Studies Critical Terrain provides students with an essential introduction to key issues, approaches and concerns of the field. This comprehensive anthology celebrates a diversity of influential feminist thought on a broad range of topics using analyses sensitive to the intersections of gender, race, class, ability, age and sexuality. Featuring both contemporary and classic pieces, the carefully selected and edited readings centre Indigenous, racialized, disabled and queer voices. With over sixty percent new content, this thoroughly updated second edition contains infographics, original activist artwork and a new section on gender, migration and citizenship. The editors have also added chapters on issues surrounding sex work as labour, the politics of veiling trans and queer identities, Indigenous sovereignty, decolonization, masculinity, online activism and contemporary social justice movements including Black Lives Matter and Idle No More. The multidisciplinary focus and the unique combination of scholarly articles, interviews, fact sheets, reports, blog posts, poetry, artwork and personal narratives reflect the vitality of the field and keep the collection engaging and varied. Concerned with the past, present and future of gender identity, gendered representation, feminism and activism, this anthology is an indispensable resource for students in gender and women's studies classrooms across Canada and the United States.
