Selling the Sacred Mara Einstein, Sarah McFarland Taylor, 2024-03-01 There's religion in my marketing There's marketing in my religion Selling the Sacred explores the religious cultural and media implications of a two-sided phenomenon marketing religion as a product and marketing products as religion What do various forms of religion marketing collaboration look like in the twenty-first century and what does this tell us about American culture and society Social and technological changes rapidly and continuously reframe religious and marketing landscapes Crossfit is a cult Televangelists use psychographics and data marketing QAnon is a religion and big business These are some of the examples highlighted in this collection which engages themes related to capitalist narratives issues related to gender and race and the intersection of religion politics and marketing among other key issues The innovative contributors examine the phenomenon of selling the sacred providing a better understanding of how marketing tactics married with religious content influence our thinking and everyday lives These scholars bring to light how political economic and ideological agendas infuse the construction and presentation of the sacred via more traditional religious institutions or consumer product marketing By examining religion and marketing broadly this book offers engaging tools to recognize and unpack what gets sold as sacred what's at stake and the consequences A go-to resource for those working in marketing studies religious studies and media studies Selling the Sacred is also a must-read for religious and marketing professionals Strategy Stewart R Clegg, Jochen Schweitzer, Andrea Whittle, Christos Pitelis, 2019-11-30 Providing a fresh perspective on strategy from an organizational perspective through a discursive approach featuring key theoretic tenets this text is also pragmatic and emphasizes the practices of strategy to encourage the reader to be open to a wider set of ideas with a little more relevance and with a cooler attitude towards the affordances of the digital world and the possibilities for strategy's futures The key areas of Strategy take a critical stance in the new edition and also include areas less evident in conventional strategy texts such as not-for-profit organizations process theories globalization organizational politics and decision making as well as the futures of strategy Typography: A Very Short Introduction Paul Luna, 2018-11-15 Typography the art of designing printed words was once the domain of an elite few artists but has become an area with which millions of people engage daily The widespread usage of digital devices from laptops to tablets and smart phones which are used for written communications means that we are regularly asked to make decisions about the fonts sizes and layouts we use in our writing This broadening engagement with the field of typography has led to a perceptible shift from debates about legibility and technicalities to conversations about which fonts best reflect the writer's personality or style In this Very Short Introduction Paul Luna offers a broad definition of typography as design for reading whether in print or on screens where a set of visual choices are taken to make a written message more accessible more easily transmitted more significant or more attractive Considering the development of letterforms and the shapes of letters we use Luna discusses the history behind our modern-day letters and fonts before considering the issues behind key typographic decisions and the differences between printed and on screen typography Presenting any piece of typography as a fundamental design choice Luna introduces the options available today and explores the reasons why key typographic decisions are made ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable
