Documents concernant le film "Quatre de l'infanterie", d'après un roman d'Ernest Johanssen , Rethinking Identities Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni, Mariaconcetta Costantini, Mara Mattoscio, 2023-11-22 This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories In particular it calls into question established models of gender notions of narrative genres and typological genera of borders in today s literary artistic philosophical and socio political discourse The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender genre and typology genus simultaneously the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts literature anthropology sociology and philosophy Narrative Strategies in the Reconstruction of History Ana Fernandes, 2018-12-14 This book enquires into the processes by which certain contemporary women pay testimony to history It examines the reasons why they recreate the past whether political social or artistic and the strategies employed to establish a comparison with the present The focus is on authors such as A S Byatt Pat Barker Anne Enright Tracy Chevalier and Ali Smith The volume demonstrates and discusses parallels shifts and transformations in the writing of these authors and

New Approaches to Transcodification Massimo Fusillo, Dorian Legge, Mirko Lino, Mattia Petricola, Gianluigi Rossini, 2025-08-04 This collection aims to renew our perspective on adaptation and intermedial processes by thinking of them in terms of codes rather than media. As a result, the notion of transcodification emerges as a crucial tool in order to study the circulation of semiotic and aesthetic resources across disciplines, knowledge systems, and cultures. Defined as the transfer of meaning-making potential from one semiotic domain to another, transcodification both includes and transcends intermediality, thus dramatically expanding the scope and research potential of adaptation and intermedial studies. The essays collected here apply this framework to an incredibly wide variety of objects and issues, from the relationship between art and historiography to the visual culture of finance, from contemporary approaches to ekphrasis to the hidden labor of screenwriters, from modern surveillance to digital comics, from fansubbing to the reception of the classical world in the digital age, from medieval theater to the role of videogames in the war on terror. By fostering dialogue between radically different disciplines, the book offers a unique approach to the study of semiotic interrelations across the most diverse aspects of human culture.

Artful Ali Smith, 2024-04-02 Ali Smith melds the tale and the essay into a magical hybrid form, a song of praise to the power of stories in our lives. In February 2012, the novelist Ali Smith delivered the Weidenfeld lectures on European comparative literature at St Anne's College, Oxford. Her lectures took the shape of this set of discursive stories. Refusing to be tied down to either fiction or the essay form, Artful is narrated by a character who is haunted literally by a former lover, the writer of a series of lectures about art and literature. A hypnotic dialogue unfolds, a duet between a meditation on art and storytelling, a book about love, grief, memory, and revitalization. Smith's heady powers as a fiction writer harmonize with her keen perceptions as a reader and critic to form a living thing that reminds us that life and art are never separate. Artful is a book about the things art can do, the things art is full of, and the quicksilver nature of all artfulness. It glances off artists and writers from Michelangelo through Dickens, then all the way past postmodernity, exploring every form from ancient cave painting to 1960s cinema musicals. This kaleidoscope opens up new, inventive, elastic insights on the relation of aesthetic form to the human mind, the ways we build our minds from stories, the bridges art builds between us. Artful is a celebration of literature's worth in and to the world and a meaningful contribution to that worth in itself. There has never been a book quite like it.

Diffractional Reading Kai Merten, 2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts, this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself. In this book, reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re-considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse. The history of literary and cultural reading, including poststructuralism and critical theory, is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined.

Diffractive Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading's intervention in and co-creation of the world in which we live How to Be Both Ali Smith, 2014-12-02 Short listed for the Man Booker Prize a lively story about the versatility of art is presented as a genre bending conversation between forms times truths and tales from the perspectives of a renaissance artist the offspring of a 1960s parent and others Other Stories and Other Stories Ali Smith, 1999 A collection of short stories that share the same theme of examining the distances and connections between people There But For The Ali Smith, 2011 When Miles Garth locks himself in an upstairs room during a dinner party and communicates only through notes slipped under the door his involuntary hosts beg help from childhood friend Anna who is unwittingly thrust into the family's surreal world By the Whitbread Award winning author of The Accidental The Book Lover Ali Smith, 2008-12-02 From the acclaimed award winning author comes a sparkling surprising collection of the writing she loves best and without which she would not have become a writer The Book Lover is a treasure trove of what Ali Smith has loved over the course of her reading life in her twenties as a teenager as a child Full of pieces from amazing writers like Sylvia Plath Muriel Spark Grace Paley and Margaret Atwood it also has a wonderful selection of lesser known authors like Joseph Roth only just gaining proper status now and Clarice Lispector a Brazilian genius who's far too underpublished From surprising figures like Beryl the Peril Billie Holliday and Lee Miller to unusual selections from the most prominent writers in history The Book Lover is an intimate personal anthology that gives readers a glimpse of how writers develop their craft by reading other writers
