

THE HISTORY OF MOTHER'S DAY

Everyone has a mother, so it is surprising that throughout the world there are many different ways of honoring and celebrating mothers. Mother's Day is a time to think about the biggest mothers and grandmothers pass on to their children. Honoring the unique role of mothers is part of the story behind Mother's Day - but not all of it.

Mother's Day isn't a contemporary holiday. In fact, the earliest Mother's Day celebrations can be traced back to the spring celebrations of ancient Greece in honor of Rhea, the mother of the gods. People would make offerings of honey cakes, fine clothes, and flowers to the Mothering Goddess of Dawn. During the 1600s, England celebrated "Mothering Sunday" on the fourth Sunday of Lent (the 40 days leading up to Easter) as a way to honor the mothers of England. Many of England's poor lived as servants for the wealthy, far away from their homes and families. On Mothering Sunday, servants were given the day off to return home and spend the day with their mothers.

The official observance of Mother's Day in its present form is credited to Anna Jarvis (1864-1965) of Philadelphia. She wanted to honor the memory of her mother, Mrs. Ann Maria

Reeves Jarvis, who died in 1905. Mrs. Jarvis had eight children under the age of seven (she gave birth to a total of twelve children), and wanted to combat the poor health and sanitation conditions that existed in many areas and contributed to the high mortality rate of children. She established social action leagues that provided medicine for the poor, nursing care for the sick, and arranged help and proper medical care for those with tuberculosis.

At the beginning of the Civil War, members of these clubs nursed soldiers from both sides and saved many lives. After the Civil War Mrs. Jarvis worked as a peace-maker encouraging families to set aside differences created by the polarization of the war. In 1858, she organized a "Mothers Friendship Day" to bring together families that had been divided by the conflict. If friends and family were to be reconciled, Mrs. Jarvis believed it had to be done by appealing to that love and respect that everyone has for their mother. With great skill and courage, she created a very emotional event, with many people attending and in tears at the end. Several other Mothers Friendship Days were held thereafter.

Mrs. Jarvis' service to her community was not lost upon her death; however, her daughter Anna recalled something her mother often begged for - that someday a Memorial Mother's Day would be founded. Anna vowed to her mother's grave-stones: "By the grace of God, you shall have your Mother's Day!"

In 1908, Anna persuaded her mother's church in Grafton, W.V. to celebrate Mother's Day on the anniversary of her mother's death, the second Sunday of May. It was to be a day to honour all mothers, and also a day to remember the work of peace making, reconciliation, and social action against poverty. That same year, Mother's Day was also celebrated in Philadelphia.

Anna and her supporters tirelessly wrote to ministers, business people, and politicians in their quest to establish a national Mother's Day to honour all mothers. By 1908, Mother's Day was celebrated in almost every state. In 1914, President Woodrow Wilson made it official. Mother's Day would be a national holiday held each year on the second Sunday in May. He stated that mothers were "the greatest source of the country's strength and inspiration."

Anna went on to incorporate herself as the Mother's Day International Association and turned her attention to persuading other nations to celebrate Mother's Day. Eventually, Mother's Day would be observed in over 100 countries!

It was Anna Jarvis who also began the custom of sending a card on Mother's Day - followed if your mother is being, and while it she's not. Even though she had never had children herself, Anna was the mother of Mother's Day, and each Mother's Day her room would be filled with thousands of letters and cards from all over the world.

Anna Jarvis passed away in 1965, at the age of 101. Anna's legacy lives on, at the heart of the traditions around Mother's Day are themes of honoring mothers, compassion, and peace!
