The Wedding of Zein Tayeb Salih, 2011-04-20 The Wedding of Zein unfolds in the same village on the upper Nile where Tayeb Salih's tragic masterpiece Season of Migration to the North is set Here however the story that emerges through the overlapping sometimes contradictory voices of the villagers is comic Zein is the village idiot and everyone in the village is dumbfounded when the news goes around that he will be getting married Zein the freak Zein who burst into laughter the moment he was born and has kept women and children laughing ever since Zein who lost all his teeth at six and whose face is completely hairless Zein married at last Zein's particular role in the life of the village has been the peculiar one of falling in love again and again with girls who promptly marry another man It would be unheard of for him to get married himself In Tayeb Salih's wonderfully agile telling the story of how this miracle came to be is one that engages the tensions that exist in the village or indeed in any community tensions between the devout and the profane the poor and the propertied the modern and the traditional In the end however Zein's ridiculous good luck augurs an ultimate reconciliation opening a prospect of a world made whole Salih's classic novella appears here with two of his finest short stories The Doum Tree of Wad Hamid and A Handful of Dates
