Child Friendly Evaluation Form:

NIJ Special Report, A Resource for Evaluating Child Advocacy Centers, July 2004, 2004 A Resource for Evaluating Child Advocacy Centers Shelly L. Jackson, 2004 Children's Rights Education in Diverse Classrooms Lee Jerome, Hugh Starkey, 2021-04-08 With PISA tables accountability and performance management pulling educators in one direction and the understanding that education is a social process embedded in cultural contexts tailored to meet the needs and challenges of individuals and communities in another it is easy to end up in seeing teachers as positioned as opponents to the system Jerome and Starkey argue that the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child UNCRC 1989 can provide a pragmatic starting point for educators to challenge some of these unsettling trends in a way which does not set up unnecessary opposition with policy makers They review the evidence from international evaluations surveys and case studies about practice in human rights and child right education before exploring the key principles of transformative and experiential education to offer a robust theoretical framework that can guide the development of child rights education They also draw out practical implications and outline a series of teaching and learning approaches that are values informed aligned with children s rights and focused on quality learning Group Filial Therapy Louise Guerney, Virginia Ryan, 2013-04-28 In Group Filial Therapy GFT therapists train parents to conduct play sessions with their children This book provides an accessible guide to the theory and practice of GFT and for the first time offers step by step guidelines for implementing the GFT program developed by Dr Guerney the co creator of Filial Therapy Demanding Good Governance Mary McNeil, Carmen Malena, 2010-06-23 Accountability is the cornerstone of good governance Unless public officials can be held to account then critical benefits associated with good governance such as social justice poverty reduction and development remain elusive The impacts of non responsive and unaccountable governance are perhaps most harshly felt by the citizens of Africa where corruption and governance failures are broadly acknowledged as a principal obstacle to the achievement Over the past decade a range of social accountability practices such as participatory budgeting independent budget analysis participatory monitoring of public expenditure and citizen evaluation of public services have been experimented with in many Africa countries Their outcomes and lessons have thus far received little attend and documentation This volume aims to make a contribution towards filling this gap by describing and analyzing a selection of social accountability initiatives from seven Sub Saharan countries Reforming Pedagogy in Cambodia Takayo Ogisu, 2022-01-08 This book presents a sociocultural account of logic or a pedagogy that governs Cambodian education from policy making to classroom practices In so doing it seeks to not only provide an introduction to Cambodian education but also to help readers understand the complexities involved in reforming educational practices by drawing on an ethnographic multi level case study of an ongoing pedagogical reform policy The book reveals what is actually taking place in today s Cambodian classrooms and how actors view their own practices in response to the new pedagogy Importantly the book situates

Cambodian pedagogical reform efforts amid the global wave of student centered pedagogies and sheds new light on the political economy of educational policy making and policy implementation along a global local axis Evaluation Report on Child Justice in Zambia L. M. Muntingh,2007 Child Health Assessment James R. Rodrigue,Gary R. Geffken,Randi M. Streisand,2000 With hundreds of different child health assessment instruments introduced in the past 25 years how do you locate the ones that are appropriate for your needs How do you select from among those you ve located And how can you be sure you haven t overlooked some little known measures that may be just what you ve been looking for Until now locating and selecting child health assessment instruments hasn t been easy Or fast Or in many instances accurate And it s quite possible you ve overlooked measures that would have been perfect for your needs if only you had known about them

Researched and written by three psychologists specializing in children s health Child Health Assessments is the only handbook of its kind Part I describes the organization of the book and provides highly relevant information necessary for properly evaluating the psychometric characteristics of child health instruments It also reviews the issues and guidelines regarding the selection of appropriate instruments Part II contains reviews based on published literature with additional input from practitioners and researchers throughout the world on more than 100 child health instruments Each instrument is described in detail with such standard information as author name s instrument title and description availability samples for whom the measure is appropriate sample items scoring details reliability and validity and published references The reviews are listed alphabetically and also according to child health domain General and Illness Specific Adjustment Stress and Coping Attitudes and Beliefs Pediatric Pain and Childhood Injury Quality of Life Health Related Knowledge and Adherence to Medical Regimens Parent Family and Health Care Professional Part III offers the authors summary impressions conclusions regarding the status of child health assessment and recommendations for its continued advancement For child health care professionals No-Work Paperwork for Children's Ministry ,1996 Resources in Education ,1995 Speech and the Hearing-impaired Child Daniel Ling,2002 Report on Juvenile Justice South African Law Commission,2000 An Evaluation of Three Techniques for Improving Ability to Solve Arithmetic Problems Olin Silas Lutes,1926
