O'Leary, 2011-04-13. A Rant and a Road Trip chronicles an alternative holiday you might say a heart on the sleeve road trip. It's not so much about where Brendan O'Leary went but what he found when he got there and the people he met along the way. This journal covers five weeks spent on the road, drifting from town to town and motel to motel, living out of a suitcase and for the most part never knowing where the next stop will be. But believe it when O'Leary tells you that it can be a very liberating experience, seeing another town, another diner, another motel, the story continuing as he travels to new places. Nothing can beat the feeling that comes from unexpected discoveries made while traveling. As you travel through the pages of this journal, you'll see what O'Leary sees and feel what he feels. From New Jersey to Texas to California, O'Leary shares his thoughts about the places he visits and the people he meets. Written as very personal journal entries, O'Leary examines the essence of America through his experiences and shares the ups and downs of living life on the road. Slightly Slower 66 John Mulhern III, 2015-09-07. In Slightly Slower 66, John Mulhern III writes about traveling a total of 6,094 miles in fifteen days, including eight wonderful days on Route 66 itself. The route goes through sixteen widely and wildly different states, including not only stops in the big cities of Chicago, Santa Fe, Los Angeles, and Denver, but also nights spent in the small cities and towns of Tucumcari, Holbrook, and Barstow. The expected adventures on the road yield to visits with friends, old and new, encounters with various other Corvettes and other vehicles of interest, and more than a few great places to eat, sometimes in the most unexpected places.
