Congress, 1993 Classical Reception Anastasia Bakogianni, Luis Unceta Gómez, 2024-07-22 In a time of acute crisis when our societies face a complex series of challenges race gender inclusivity changing pedagogical needs and a global pandemic we urgently need to re access the nature of our engagement with the Classical World This edited collection argues that we need to discover new ways to draw on our discipline and the material it studies to engage in meaningful ways with these new academic and societal challenges The chapters included in the collection interrogate the very processes of reception and continue the work of destabilising the concept of a pure source text or point of origin Our aim is to break through the boundaries that still divide our ancient texts and material culture from their reception and interpretive communities Our contributors engage with these questions theoretically and or through the close examination of cultural artefacts They problematise the concept of a Western elitist canon and actively push the geographical boundaries of reception as both a local and a global phenomenon Individually and cumulatively they actively engage with the question of how to marshal the classical past in our efforts to respond to the challenges of our mutable contemporary world Image, Myth and Beyond Betty E. M. Ch'maj, Betty E. Chmaj, Joseph W. Baunoch, 1972 Government by Assassination Hugh Byas, 2010-11-01 Written by someone who spent twenty three years as a journalist in Japan this book describes the political and military aspirations of Japan at a tumultuous period of twentieth century history The book examines the workings of the Japanese government and discusses the role of the military in shaping political ideals ideals which were a compound of Marxism and National Socialism transformed for Japanese uses and combined with fanatical racial national and semi religious obsessions Proverbs, Songs, Epic Narratives, Folktales of East Asia Yen Ping-chiu, 1997-06-19 This book offers a comparative analysis of the Canadian and American health care systems and it also explicates and criticizes both Norman Daniels fair equality of opportunity argument for a right to health care and Allan Buchanon s enforced beneficence argument for a right to a decent minimum of health care Cust advances an argument based on David Gauthier s Morals by Agreement that people have a right to a just minimum of health care The significance of Cust s book is that the main argument is based on four important notions central to contemporary social moral and political theory namely the notions of liberty equality consent and mutual advantage Kokka ,1916 Art press ,2002 Far Eastern Front Edgar Snow, 1933 Amerasia Philip Jacob Jaffe, 1939 A Bibliography of the Japanese Empire Friedrich Wenckstern, 1907
