Political Philosophy is an engaging survey of political philosophy perfect for beginning and advanced undergraduates. Selections cover classic philosophical sources such as Rousseau and Locke as well as contemporary writers such as Nozick and Dworkin. In addition, this text includes a number of readings drawn from economics literature and sociology which serve to introduce philosophical questions about politics in a novel and intriguing way. As well as standard topics such as political authority and distributive justice, special attention is given to global issues which have become especially pressing in recent years such as the right of individuals or groups to secede, the nature of global distributive justice, the morality of immigration and the moral status of war and terrorism. The volume is divided into 3 parts: Foundational Concepts, Government, the Economy and Morality, and Global Justice, helping the student get to grips with classic and core arguments and emerging debates in political authority, rights, justice, political economy, property rights, distributive justice, freedom, equality, immigration, war, humanitarianism, and torture. Matt Zwolinski provides lucid and engaging introductions to each section, giving an overview of the debate and outlining the arguments of each section's readings. Arguing About Political Philosophy is an exciting introduction for students new to political philosophy.

Arguing about the Mind Brie Gertler, Lawrence A. Shapiro, 2007. An accessible and engaging introductory reader that explores a broad range of topics and key arguments on the philosophy of mind.

Arguing about Religion Kevin Timpe, 2009. Arguing About Religion is an ideal collection for students interested in contemporary philosophy of religion and related disciplines. This volume brings together primary readings from over 40 of the world's leading philosophers of religion, covering a broad range of issues. Set alongside these works of academic philosophy are excerpts from controversial popular works by Daniel Dennett and Richard Dawkins in order to introduce the philosophical issues in a way that demonstrates their relevance to everyday life and sets them in the context of contemporary cultural discourse. The volume is divided into 6 parts, helping the student get to grips with classic and core arguments. Topics covered include methodological issues in philosophy of religion, God's nature and existence, evil and divine hiddenness, providence and interaction, the afterlife, religion and contemporary life. Featuring lucid general and section introductions and a glossary by volume editor Kevin Timpe, Arguing About Religion is an ideal starting point for students coming to philosophy of religion for the first time.

The Philosophers' Magazine, 2007. Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism Ted Nannicelli, 2020-05-05. Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism investigates an idea that underpins the ethical criticism of art but is rarely acknowledged and poorly understood: namely, that the ethical criticism of art involves judgments not only of the attitudes a work endorses or solicits but of what artists do to create the work. The book pioneers an innovative production-oriented approach to the study of the ethical criticism of art, one that will provide a refined philosophical account of this important topic as well as conceptual tools that can guide future philosophizing and criticism.

English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art, 1889. How Philosophers Argue Fernando Leal, Hubert Marraud, 2022-02-21. This volume presents a double argumentative analysis of the debate between Bertrand Russell and Frederick Copleston on the existence of God It includes an introduction justifying the choice of text and describing the historical and philosophical background of the debate It also provides a transcript of the debate based in part on the original recording The argumentative analyses occupy Parts I and II of the book In Part I the argumentative process is analysed by means of the ideal model of critical discussion the workhorse of pragma dialectics Part I shows how the two parties go through the four stages of a critical discussion It highlights the questions raised over and beyond the presiding question of whether God exists and examines almost a hundred questions that are raised Many are left in the air whereas a few others give rise to sundry sub discussions or meta dialogues In Part II the theoretical framework of argument dialectic is put to work argument structures are identified by means of punctuation marks argumentative connectors and operators allowing to see the argumentative exchange as the collaborative construction of a macro argument Such a macro argument is both a joint product of the arguers and a complex structure representing the dialectical relationships between the individual arguments combined in it Finally the complementarity of the two approaches is addressed Thus the book can be described as an exercise in adversarial collaboration
