Articulating Design Decisions Communicate Stakeholders:

Articulating Design Decisions Tom Greever,2020-08-03 Talking to people about your designs might seem like a basic skill but it can be difficult to do well In many cases how you communicate with stakeholders clients and other nondesigners may be more important than the designs themselves Because if you can t get their support your work will never see the light of day no matter how good it is This practical guide focuses on principles tactics and actionable methods for presenting your designs Whether you design apps websites or products you ll learn how to get support from people who have influence over the project with the goal of creating the best user experience Walk through the process of preparing and presenting your designs Understand stakeholder perspectives and learn how to empathize with them Cultivate both implicit and explicit listening skills Learn tactics and strategies for expressing the most effective response to feedback Create the right documentation for your decisions to avoid repeated conversations Learn why following through is just as important as the meeting itself Articulating Design Decisions Tom Greever,2015-09-25 Talking to people about your designs might seem like a basic skill but it can be difficult to do efficiently and well And in many cases how you communicate about your work with stakeholders clients and other non designers is more critical than the designs themselves simply because the most articulate person usually wins This practical guide focuses on principles tactics and actionable methods for presenting your designs Whether you design UX websites or products you ll learn how to win over anyone who has influence over the project with the goal of creating the best experience for the end user Walk through the process of preparing for and presenting your designs Understand stakeholder perspectives and learn how to empathize with them Cultivate both implicit and explicit listening skills Learn tactics and formulas for expressing the most effective response to feedback Discover why the way you follow through is just as crucial as the meeting itself Educate your stakeholders by sharing the chapter from this book on how to work with designers Articulating Design Decisions Tom Greever,2014 With this practical video UX designers will learn the principles and actionable methods for talking about their ideas with executives marketers and others who have influence over a web or app project with the goal of winning over these stakeholders and creating the best user experience Every designer must justify their designs to non designers yet most lack the ability to explain themselves in a way that fosters agreement This video will not only help UX designers articulate their ideas but will also be valuable for non designers who want to learn to work better with designers Identify distractions and remove them so you can focus on the real issues regarding the usability and effectiveness of a design Make a case for your designs by directly connecting them to the needs of the business Use data user testing and other compelling research to justify your design decisions Ask your stakeholders to explain their needs and suggestions in ways that you can understand and that everyone agrees on Be sure you uncover the real problem they re trying to solve Filter out unnecessary information and as soon as possible send a follow up to the entire team Tom Greever is a designer consultant and trainer for Bitovi com a web app design and development consulting shop in Chicago Tom has been designing websites and interfaces since 1999 in a variety of environments including internal corporate design teams and as a freelancer with clients ranging from startups to Fortune 100s Tom also blogs and speaks about UX and design at industry conferences Summary of Tom Greever's Articulating Design Decisions Everest Media,2022-06-13T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 Designers have been relegated to the business of making pretty pictures but now that UX is everywhere we are thrust into the limelight of product development with our own ideas forming a critical part of the puzzle 2 I began my career in UX by interviewing for jobs as a marketing manager I enjoyed interviewing others about their work and I loved to talk about design I was confident that I knew a lot about design 3 I had to figure out how to communicate to my clients what my designs did I had to answer their questions in a way that made sense to them not me I had to express the rationale behind a design using words that would appeal to them and meet their needs 4 The term user experience designer is a new one that has evolved in meaning over the past decade It is all design and no one knows what they are talking about The point is that we are all constantly adjusting to the changing attitudes and approaches to creating great stuff Network Architect's Handbook Alim H.
