Unbound Queer Time in Literature, Cinema, and Video Games Juan Francisco Belmonte Ávila, Estíbaliz Encarnación-Pinedo, 2024-07-19 Unbound Queer Time in Literature Cinema and Video Games investigates the potential of queer conceptions of time to unbind forms of understanding identities In doing so it recognizes the power of time to determine us but chooses to queer time and turn it into an ally of unbound forms of understanding identities Through the analysis of different media literature cinema and video games the chapters revolve around three key ideas that there are inherently queer styles of using and dealing with time and temporality in culture that the critical rediscovery of canonical texts and the analysis of largely ignored queer texts and authors allow for a better understanding of queer identities and finally that normative conceptions of time can and should be challenged through critical tools that reconceptualize notions of the self around time This volume will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers working close to areas such as queer and gender studies media and cinema studies cultural studies literary theory comparative literature game studies and art history

Class, Gender, and Sexuality in Thomas Gainsborough's Blue Boy Valerie Hedquist, 2019-07-08 The reception of Thomas Gainsborough's Blue Boy from its origins to its appearances in contemporary visual culture reveals how its popularity was achieved and maintained by diverse audiences and in varied venues Performative manifestations resulted in contradictory characterizations of the painted youth as an aristocrat or a regular fellow as masculine or feminine or as heterosexual or gay In private and public spaces where viewers saw the actual painting and where living and rendered replicas circulated Gainsborough's painting was often the centerpiece where dominant and subordinate classes met gender identities were enacted and sexuality was implicitly or overtly expressed

Lesbian Styles in Cinema Judith Beyer, Vicki Karaminas, 2025-06-30 While there are a great many books on the Hollywood star system and its costuming and a number of books on queer cinema the role of lesbian dress styles in constructing lesbian characters has yet to be the subject of a

Fiesta de diez pesos: Music and Gay Identity in Special Period Cuba Moshe Morad, 2016-04-15 The Special Period in Cuba was an extended era of economic depression starting in the early 1990s characterized by the collapse of revolutionary values and social norms and a way of life conducted by improvised solutions for survival including hustling and sex work During this time there developed a thriving though constantly harassed and destabilized clandestine gay scene known as the ambiente In the course of eight visits between 1995 and 2007 the last dozen years of Fidel Castro's reign Moshe Morad became absorbed in Havana's gay scene where he created a wide social network attended numerous secret gatherings from clandestine parties to religious rituals and observed patterns of behavior and communication He discovered the role of music in this scene as a marker of identity a source of queer codifications and identifications a medium of interaction an outlet for emotion and a way to escape from a reality of scarcity oppression and despair Morad identified and conducted his research in different types of musical space from illegal clandestine parties held in changing locations to ballet halls drag show bars private living rooms and kitchens and santer a religious ceremonies In this important study the first on the subject he argues that music plays a central role in providing the physical emotional and conceptual spaces which constitute this scene and in the formation of a new hybrid gay identity in Special Period Cuba

Lopez, 2018-03-19 In this one of a kind volume Iraida Lopez explores various narratives of return by those who left Cuba as children or adolescents Including memoirs semi autobiographical fiction and visual arts many of these accounts feature a physical arrival on the island while others depict a metaphorical or vicarious experience by means of fictional characters or childhood reminiscences As two way migration increases in the post Cold War period many of these narratives put to the test the boundaries of national identity Through a critical reading of works by Cuban American artists and writers like Mar a Brito Ruth Behar Carlos Eire Cristina Garc a Ana Mendieta Gustavo Prez Firmat Ernesto Pujol Achy Obejas and Ana Mendez Lopez highlights the affective ties as well as the tensions underlying the relationship between returning subjects and their native country Impossible Returns also looks at how Cubans still living on the island depict returning migrants in their own narratives addressing works by Jess D az Humberto Sol s Carlos Acosta Nancy Alonso Leonardo Padura and others Blurring the lines between disciplines and geographic borders this book underscores the centrality of Cuba for its diaspora and bears implications for other countries with widespread populations in exile

Female Cartoonists in the United States Hélène Tison, 2021-11-29 This book provides an introduction to women cartoonists in the US reading their work from a feminist literary and stylistic perspective which shines a light on their innovative and unique narratives and graphic languages From rabid feminists to blundering teenagers to dyke avengers and pregnant butches from political satire to memoirs to troubling sexual tales from caricature to the clear line from realism to minimalism and abstraction they have done it all This book looks at the work of over thirty authors who have challenged the boys club of comics in the US and whose stories shed a revealing light on contemporary society through countercultural ripostes to the patriarchy raw or humorous confessions deconstruction of femininity stories of vulnerability that offer powerful counterpoints to the super bodies of mainstream comics non white and queer cartoonists drawing back and more This is a key title for students and scholars in the fields of Comics Studies Literature and Women and Gender Studies

The Asian Caribbean in the Caribbean Diaspora Aleah N. Ranjitsingh, 2026-01-22 Focuses on the historical and contemporary issues migration narratives diasporic identity formations and literary artistic and cultural representations of Caribbean immigrants of Asian descent in the Caribbean diaspora

Oscar Wilde's Plagiarism Florina Tufescu, 2008 Oscar Wilde s plagiarism practices across genres are seen as part of a neo classical tradition His allegory of plagiarism in An Ideal Husband is compared to those created by fellow playwrights including Ibsen and G B Shaw Wilde s polemical imitation of Shakespeare s cut and paste method in The Portrait of Mr W H inspires Joyce to experiment with the erasure of quotation marks in Ulysses The blatant collage of Wilde s poetry anticipates T S Eliot s The Waste Land just as it recalls Manet s paintings which provocatively assert artistic status by drawing attention to their flatness The mosaic like structure of The Picture of Dorian Gray is akin to that of other anti individualist masterpieces notably Goethe s Faust and D M Thomas s The White Hotel The extent of sophisticated plagiarism in the canonical works and the impressive list of its apologists from Ackroyd to Zola indicate the need for new models of authorship and intellectual property models that would benefit scholarly and artistic creativity and solve the paradox of plagiarism as simultaneously one of the most serious and most common of literary crimes

Queer London Matt Houlbrook, 2005-09-03 Cyril s story is Matt Houlbrook s point of entry into the queer worlds of early twentieth century London Drawing on previously unknown sources from police reports and newspaper exposes to personal letters diaries and the first queer guidebook ever written Houlbrook here explores the relationship between queer sexualities and modern urban culture that we take for granted today He revisits the diverse queer lives that took hold in London s parks and streets its restaurants pubs and dancehalls and its Turkish bathhouses and hotels as well as attempts by municipal authorities to crack down on those worlds Jacket Lethal Performances Otilie P. Klein,2017 This book provides an in depth analysis of representations of female murderers in modern American drama Paying close attention to the plays plot form and style the study seeks to come to terms with the dramatic and cultural function of this phenomenon Given the rarity of female murder in real life the popularity and prevalence of this theme in culture is striking and unsettling at the same time After all a woman who kills not only violates against basic social rules but also upsets gender norms This potential to break with an ideology that rests on hierarchically structured gender binaries equips the figure of the female murderer with the power to symbolically kill established views about gender and sexuality It is this ideologically disruptive potential that makes the female murderer a fascinating object of study as her cultural figuration may provide information about the meaning assigned to women at a certain historical moment Tramp Discourse Louis Richard Suarez-Potts,1999 Sex, Time and Place Katherine M.
