Writing War, Writing Lives Kate McLoughlin, Lara Feigel, Nancy Martin, 2018-04-19 War affects life writing and lives affect war writing The traditional forms of life writing memoir biography letters diaries buckle under the strain of war War writing has fewer traditional forms but exists at a similar extreme The eight chapters in this book written by leading and up and coming scholars in the field illuminate the creative innovations improvisations and implosions which happen when the demands of writing war and writing lives collide Central to all is the question of authenticity how can wars and lives be known and who can speak of them with authority This volume has a generous chronological and generic range beginning in the early 1800s and stretching to 21st century texts and covering letters diaries fiction fakeries poetry biography testimony songs objects and digital media The mix of authors is similarly varied Thomas Hardy W H Auden and Elizabeth Bowen rub shoulders with Yousif M Qasmiyeh a contemporary Palestinian

Authoring Janis Haswell,Richard Haswell,2010-03 Without abandoning the value of postmodern perspectives Haswell and Haswell use their own perspective of authorial potentiality and singularity to reconsider staple English studies concerns such as gender evaluation voice character literacy feminism self interpretation assessment signature and taste The essay is unique as well in the way that its authors embrace often competing realms of English studies drawing examples and arguments equally from literary and compositionist research From publisher description Life History as Cultural Construction/performance Tamás Hofer,Péter Niedermüller,1988 The Best British Short Stories of ... ,1928 Best British Short Stories and the Yearbook of the British, Irish, and Colonial Short Story Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien,John Cournos,1929 The New American Church Monthly ,1928 Includes section Book reviews The Atlantic Monthly ,1903

Fountain of Life Havelock Ellis,1924 The Life and Times of Niccolò Machiavelli Pasquale Villari,1929 School Education ,1902 Claiming God Edward P. Wimberly,2003 This book attempts to answer two perennial questions What does it mean to be persons of worth and value in our contemporary culture And how can a relationship with God give us a renewed sense of our worth and value The thesis of this book is that we become persons by internalizing the conversations in which we take part but we become holy persons by giving conversation with God a privileged status over all other conversations Even though persons are labeled worthy and valuable by our culture we are judged in our culture by market values that are antithetical to Christian values In the marketplace persons are deemed worthy and honorable if they are for example a particular color age gender class or religion Persons are considered shameful if they aren t Worthy persons are invited in and shameful persons are shut out Following the African American tradition of drawing on biblical material this book will use Biblical narratives but also contemporary African American autobiography and fiction to show pastors how to enable the transformation that comes when persons learn to put conversations with God in the forefront For example the book of Job is about a person who suffered staggering losses who was shamed by well meaning friends but who still talked and listened to God Throughout the book we see Job sorting through different levels of conversation about human value and worth until God s voice breaks through with sound and fury The Book of Job gives us no answer to the reason for suffering only that God is present and that a relationship with God is always possible Wimberly offers an elegant tool to help pastors understand how persons come to a renewed sense of their value and worth Understanding how and why transformation occurs is a fundamental issue in psychology and religion that is studied in most pastoral care classes By using the term conversation Wimberly can describe complex psychological phenomena and processes simply Part of the beauty of this concept is that it can be effectively used in both religious and secular counseling contexts by professionals interested in faith development and spiritual formation
