I. HIGHER EDUCATION IN THAILAND

I. Higher Education Administration

Prior to 2003, most of the Thai higher education institutes were under the purview of the Ministry of University Affairs (MUA) and the Ministry of Education (ME). Arising from the National Education Act of 1999, the three national agencies on education, i.e. the Office of the National Education Commission, the Ministry of University Affairs and the Ministry of Education have been consolidated in 2003 into one agency- the Ministry of Education. At present (mid 2004), provision of higher education in Thailand is mainly under the responsibility of the Ministry of Education, with other ministries and agencies participating through provision of specialized education. There is a total of 850 higher education institutions, comprising 123 degree-level institutions while the rest provide sub-degree education (2-year courses), e.g. community colleges, vocational education colleges and specialized education institutions.

Out of the 123 degree granting institutes, 24 are public universities, 34 private universities and colleges, 42 Rajabhat Institutes and 23 Rajamankala Institutes. Legislations are now in the Parliament to upgrade the Rajabhat and the Rajamankala Institutes into 41 and 9 universities, respectively.

2. Students and Graduates

In 2002, the total number of students was 1,872,207, representing 27.4% of the 18- 24 age group.
