Sheen,2023-12-16 This book is a collection of sermons from Archbishop Fulton J Sheen where he speaks about seven different groups of people found at the foot of the cross at Calvary over 2 000 years ago and how these groups are still present today There are millions of souls in this great country of ours who have no religion whatsoever Their attitudes vary from an earnest yearning for religion to an intense hatred of it It is quite possible that all of them could be reduced to seven distinct categories Our Lord spoke seven times from the Cross and these are called His Seven Last Words But those who were on Calvary s Hill that afternoon addressed seven words to Him on the Cross thus revealing the seven different impacts the Cross makes on souls The seven words which Our Lord spoke from the Cross were not specific answers to specific challenges but they do reveal lessons applicable to the challenge TO THE HUMANISTS Father forgive them for they know not what they do TO THE SINNERS This day thou shalt be with Me in Paradise TO THE SELFISH Woman behold thy son Son Behold thy mother TO THE INTELLIGENTSIA My God My God Why hast Thou hast abandoned Me TO THE MODERNS I thirst TO THE SENSATIONALISTS It is finished TO THE THINKERS Father into Thy Hands I commend My Spirit Archbishop Fulton J Sheen was a man for all seasons Over his lifetime he spent himself for souls transforming lives with the clear teaching of the truths of Christ and His Church through his books his radio addresses his lectures his television series and his many newspaper columns The topics of this much sought after lecturer ranged from the social concerns of the day to matters of faith and morals With an easy and personable manner Sheen could strike up a conversation on just about any subject making numerous friends as well as converts During the 1930s and 40s Fulton Sheen was the featured speaker on The Catholic Hour radio broadcast and millions of listeners heard his radio addresses each week His topics ranged from politics and the economy to philosophy and man s eternal pursuit of happiness Along with his weekly radio program Sheen wrote dozens of books and pamphlets One can safely say that through his writings thousands of people changed their perspective about God and the Church Sheen was quoted as saying There are not one hundred people in the United States who hate the Catholic Church but there are millions who hate what they wrongly perceive the Catholic Church to be Possessing a burning zeal to dispel the myths about Our Lord and His Church Sheen gave a series of powerful presentations on Christ s Passion and His seven last words from the Cross As a Scripture scholar Archbishop Sheen knew full well the power contained in preaching Christ crucified With St Paul he could say For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified 1 Cor 2 2 During his last recorded Good Friday address in 1979 Archbishop Sheen spoke of having given this type of reflection on the subject of Christ s seven last words from the Cross for the fifty eighth consecutive time Whether from the young priest in Peoria Illinois the university professor in Washington D C or the bishop in New York Sheen s messages were sure to make an indelible mark on his listeners Given their importance and the impact they had on society it seemed appropriate to reintroduce these reflections once again on the seven words spoken to the Cross Seven Words to the Cross Fulton Sheen,2021-05-13 The Seven Last Words Fulton J. Sheen,2022-04-13 The Seven Last Words by Archbishop

Fulton J Sheen is an exploration and explanation of the seven statements made by Christ upon the Cross Unlike the detailed instructions offered a few years earlier in the Sermon on the Mount these last few utterances of Christ were brief But within them Archbishop Sheen finds wisdom and truth Christ s Seven Last Words come from each of the four gospels of Mark Matthew John and Luke The first second and final words appear in Luke The third fifth and sixth appear in John And the fourth appears in both Matthew and Mark Archbishop Sheen calls these Last Words a sermon And indeed they had everything necessary to create one a pulpit the cross an audience the Pharisees temple priests and Roman soldiers and a truth the Words of Christ This sermon on Calvary was unlike any other It was not long winded or full of fiery prose But within these short Last Words Christ again showed us His Mercy and His Love As Archbishop Sheen says There was never a sermon like the Seven Last Words Archbishop Fulton J Sheen was born in tiny El Paso Illinois in 1895 At just eight years old while serving as an altar boy in Peoria he dropped and broke a wine cruet on the floor Bishop John L Spalding took the boy aside and predicted that he would one day study at the famous Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium and that someday you will be just as I am Archbishop Sheen did go on to study in Leuven as well as at the Catholic University of America in Washington D C and the Pontificium Collegium Internationale Angelicum in Rome He taught theology and philosophy for many years at Catholic University and he served as director for the missionary organization Society of the Propagation of Faith He was best known for his radio and television programs Archbishop Sheen spoke on the Sunday radio show The Catholic Hour throughout the 1930s and 1940s He followed this program with the wildly popular Life is Worth Living television show which earned him an Emmy for Most Outstanding Television Personality In 1951 Bishop Spalding s second prediction came true Archbishop Sheen was consecrated a bishop that year and an archbishop in 1969 Throughout his career in the priesthood Archbishop Sheen wrote dozens of books and essays on faith philosophy and scripture The Seven Last Words 1933 brings the reader closer to the day of the crucifixion helping the reader to feel the enormity of Christ s sacrifice and the love that it demonstrates for all mankind From His prayer for the forgiveness of His enemies Father forgive them for they know not what they do to His kind gift of the Blessed Virgin and His beloved friend John to each other Woman behold thy son these words are caught up by our own poor hearts that must decide once more if they will be tempted by the love of that Saviour Christ s final words were Father into Thy Hands I commend My Spirit He has turned from the faces of the jeering crowd and to the face of God His years of toil on earth have ended just as He knew and planned that they should As Archbishop Sheen writes His whole substance is wasted among sinners for He is giving the last drop of His precious blood for the redemption of the world Each section of the book ends with a short prayer that reflects the topic of each of the Seven Last Words While this book is valuable year round it is a particularly apt piece to study during Holy Week The Rainbow of Sorrow Fulton John Sheen,1953 The Lord's Prayer and The Seven Last Words Fulton J Sheen,2023-11-22 THE LORD S PRAYER AND THE SEVEN LAST WORDS During the 1930s and 40s Fulton Sheen was the featured speaker on The Catholic Hour radio broadcast and millions of listeners heard his radio addresses each week His topics ranged from politics and the economy to philosophy and man s eternal pursuit of happiness Possessing a burning zeal to dispel the myths about Our Lord and His Church Sheen gave a series of powerful presentations on Christ s Passion and His seven last words from the Cross As a Scripture scholar Archbishop Sheen knew full well the power contained in preaching Christ crucified With St Paul he could say For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified 1 Cor 2 2 During his last recorded Good Friday address in 1979 Archbishop Sheen spoke of having given this type of reflection on the subject of Christ s seven last words from the Cross for the fifty eighth consecutive time Whether from the young priest in Peoria Illinois the university professor in Washington D C or the bishop in New York Sheen s messages were sure to make an indelible mark on his listeners Given their importance and the impact they had on society it seemed appropriate to reintroduce a number of these reflections from 1933 and 1935 on the Seven Last Words and The Lord s Prayer Fulton Sheen wrote Our Lord is the only King who ever stumbled to His throne But that was because He is God and God reveals His Power through the weakness of a crucifixion and His Wisdom through the foolishness of a cross What message will the King deliver from His unkingly throne Last words are always important but particularly the last words of Him Who gave His Life for the redemption of many It will be recalled that one day the Apostles approached Him saying Lord teach us to pray He answered their request by giving them the perfect prayer the Our Father Now the time comes for Him to say His own Our Father As there were seven petitions in the Our Father He taught us so there are seven petitions in His own last prayer They are known as the Seven Last Words We shall meditate conjointly on our Our Father and His Our Father Our Father Who art in heaven Father forgive them for they know not what they do Hallowed be Thy Name Amen I say to thee this day thou shalt be with me in paradise Thy Kingdom Come Woman behold thy son Thy Will be done on earth as it is in heaven My God My God why hast thou forsaken me Give us this day our daily bread I thirst Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us It is consummated Deliver us from all evil Amen Father into thy hands I commend my spirit The Lord s Prayer and the Seven Last Words have been referred to as Two Bridges Connecting Heaven and Earth In the pages that will follow Archbishop Sheen will help us to understand this in a more deep and meaningful way

Victory Over Vice Fulton J. Sheen, 2022-04-13

Victory Over Vice 1939 is one of several books by Archbishop Fulton J Sheen exploring the Seven Last Words of Christ during His Crucifixion In this short work Archbishop Sheen considers each of the final utterances of Christ from the perspective of one of the capital sins He demonstrates how each phrase proves the purity of Jesus Christ and he uses each as an instruction on how we too can overcome these mortal vices Archbishop Fulton J Sheen 1895 1979 was a well known priest and media personality throughout the mid 20th century First ordained in 1919 he began his priesthood in the Diocese of Peoria Always seeking greater theological and philosophical understanding he continued his education at the Catholic University of America the Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium and the Pontificium Collegium Internationale Angelicum in Rome In 1930

Archbishop Sheen became a weekly contributor to the popular radio show The Catholic Hour a position he held for 20 years. In the 1950s he expanded his media appearances to include Life is Worth Living a successful Catholic television program. This show earned him an Emmy for Most Outstanding Television Personality in 1953. While sharing his wisdom on television and radio he also taught at the Catholic University of America and wrote dozens of books and essays on matters of scripture, faith, and spirituality. In several works Archbishop Sheen returned to the topic of Christ's Seven Last Words in his writing including Victory Over Vice. In this work Archbishop Sheen uses the Seven Last Words as a guide through the perils of the seven deadly sins. Each of these sins led to the crucifixion. But we were also given a guide to overcoming them during the life and death of Jesus Christ. By understanding them we can guard against them and use His example to guide our own lives. Archbishop Sheen is careful to define each of these sins and to explain when they cross from an acceptable behavior or trait into a dangerous failing. Envy for example can be justified and even helpful when it inspires us to emulate good example and to progress with those who are our betters. But it becomes a sin when it is a wilful grieving at another's good either spiritual or temporal for the reason that it seems to diminish our own good. Throughout each of the Seven Words Christ shows us how we should behave when faced with sin in ourselves or in others. When he is faced with the anger of the masses he begs Father forgive them for they know not what they do. When faced with the thief to the left who envies His Power he instead turns to the thief on the right and pronounces that This day thou shalt be with me in paradise. When faced with the pride of those who have turned from God He permits Himself to feel Godlessness and it broke His heart in the saddest of all cries My God my God why hast thou forsaken me. Faced with anger, envy, lust, pride, gluttony, sloth, and covetousness leading up to and throughout His death Christ shows us how to respond to each in others and in ourselves. It is a simple matter to preach what we should do to avoid sin. But to see how Christ responded when faced with it and avoided it in His own purity is a true gift. The study of Christ's final words is an important area of meditation for the faithful. They prove the consistency of His teachings. From the Sermon on the Mount to His actions through His life to these last phrases we see how He traversed the trials of life. And we find a blueprint to avoid sin and cleanse our own souls.

The Seven Last Words, by Fulton J. Sheen
Fulton John Sheen, Fulton Sheen Fulton Sheen, 2021-12-29 Seven Deadly Sins Kevin Vost, 2015-06-15

The seven deadly sins are generals leading a vast and deadly army. The soldiers are a variety of sins and misdeeds and the capital sins are the officers who sent them on their nefarious tasks. With the writings of St. Thomas Aquinas as his guide, best-selling author Kevin Vost tackles the deadly sins one by one showing how they take root in our soul and give birth to offspring, other sinful thoughts and deeds that help it reach its sinful goals. You'll learn how they attack us and how they become ingrained habits that prevent virtue from raising us to heaven. Indeed, these sins hold us down to earth and possibly ultimately even much lower. The deadly sins can be conquered and in these pages you'll learn the methods employed by saints to vanquish vicious habits and replace them with virtuous ones. Follow the advice in this book and you'll soon strike at the head of sin and walk more positively in the light and love of Christ You ll also learn Which sin can truly be called the deadliest in the world Why there are only seven deadly sins What takes place within our souls when we grapple with sin The relationship between vices and sins and how to sever their bonds How each and every deadly sin is outnumbered by several opposite virtues Six deadly dominoes Do you know the sins that almost always cause us to commit additional sins How the mother of the virtues dethrones the queen of the vices Seven sacramental and saint sanctioned strategies to call forth God s graces to grapple with each deadly sin
