Rethinking Language Education in the Age of Generative AI Zhongfeng Tian,Chaoran Wang,2025-05-20 Rethinking Language Education in the Age of Generative AI bridges the gap between theory research and practice in AI and language education Through conceptual pieces empirical studies and practical applications this book provides critical insights and implications for reimagining language education in the age of generative AI. The contributors explore a wide range of issues, reflections, and innovations in AI and language education across diverse contexts including English as a Second Language (ESL), English as a Foreign Language (EFL), foreign language learning, postsecondary pathways programs for international students, and language teacher education programs. Topics examined include critical AI literacy, GenAI-informed second language teaching and assessment, teacher and student perceptions, tool development for language learning, as well as ethical considerations, policies, and guidelines. The book incorporates interdisciplinary perspectives such as L2 foreign language studies, education, and applied linguistics, as well as global insights from countries like the United States, Canada, South Korea, Thailand, Indonesia, and the Philippines. This book is essential for students and researchers seeking to leverage AI to enhance language teaching and learning in innovative, critical, ethical, and responsible ways. Strategic Planning for Public Relations Deborah A. Silverman, Ronald D. Smith, 2024-03-14. The seventh edition of Strategic Planning for Public Relations maintains its status as a leading text to guide students in developing successful public relations campaigns. Deborah Silverman and Ronald Smith bring their experience as instructors and public relations professionals to the book, providing clear step-by-step guidance on how to plan and implement strategic communications campaigns. This new edition includes diverse examples of current cases along with classic cases that stand the test of time. It includes new Ethics Minutes scenarios in each step, a new research step, and examples of award-winning public relations campaigns. It also significantly increases information on social media and features a reformatting of the tactics step into four separate parts based on the PESO model: paid media, earned media, shared media, and owned media. As a leader in teaching public relations strategy, this text is ideal for students in upper division undergraduate and graduate courses in public relations strategy and campaigns. Complementing the book are online resources for both students and instructors: For students, step overviews, useful links to professional organizations, and resources; checklists for the ten steps in the planning process and two sample campaigns. For instructors, an instructor's manual, PowerPoint slides, sample syllabi, a critique evaluation worksheet, and checklists for the ten steps in the planning process.
