Sharing Your Education Expertise with the World Jenny Grant Rankin, 2018-10-08. This highly practical guide helps education experts of all levels share their knowledge, work, and research beyond their own field and colleagues. By pursuing the recommendations in this book, educators and researchers can increase the exposure of their ideas and impact more students' lives; this also enhances readers' CVs and careers. Chapters cover the most effective and efficient ways to share readers' expertise with the world, such as branding, crafting your pitch, and leveraging social media. Writing landing book deals and succeeding in key writing opportunities. Speaking, giving TED Talks, delivering conference keynote presentations, appearing on NPR, landing interviews, and contributing to public dialogue. Participating and serving, making connections, influencing policy, and joining panels or advisory boards. Honors, winning awards, and recognition to expand your platform. Rich in tips, strategies, and guidelines, this book also includes downloadable eResources that provide links, leads, and templates to help secure radio broadcasts, podcasts, conferences, and other publication opportunities. The eResources can be found under the Support Materials heading below.

Scientists, Experts, and Civic Engagement Amy E. Lesen, 2016-04-01. How do scientists, scholars, and other experts engage with the general public and with the communities affected by their work or residing in their sites of study? Where are the fine lines between public scholarship, civic engagement, and activism? Must academics give back once they collect data and publish results? In this volume, authors from a wide range of disciplines examine these relationships to assess how they can be fruitful or challenging. Describing the methodological and ethical issues that experts must consider when carrying out public scholarship this book includes a checklist for critical factors of success in engagement and an examination of the role of digital social media in science communication Illustrated by a range of case studies addressing environmental issues climate change resource use post disaster policy and education it offers an investigation into the levels and ways in which scholars can engage and how and whether academics and experts who engage in community work and public scholarship are acknowledged and rewarded for doing so by their institutions Also bringing into the debate the perspective of citizens who have collaborated with academics the book offers an exploration of the democratizing potential of participatory action research
