J. G. Ballard D. Harlan Wilson, 2017-11-10 Prophetic short stories and apocalyptic novels like The Crystal World made J G Ballard a foundational figure in the British New Wave Rejecting the science fiction of rockets and aliens he explored an inner space of humanity informed by psychiatry and biology and shaped by surrealism Later in his career Ballard's combustible plots and violent imagery spurred controversy even legal action while his autobiographical 1984 war novel Empire of the Sun brought him fame D Harlan Wilson offers the first career spanning analysis of an author who helped steer SF in new if startling directions Here was a writer committed to moral ambiguity one who drowned the world and erected a London high rise doomed to descend into savagery and coolly picked apart the characters trapped within each story Wilson also examines Ballard's methods his influence on cyberpunk and the ways his fiction operates within the sphere of our larger culture and within SF itself

Murder in Motion Michael Mirabile, 2026-04-15 Murder in Motion examines the fictional category of the thriller a genre founded on the effects and objects of suspense through the lens of city dwelling In particular the purpose is to locate the mechanism of suspense against the backdrop of the increased mobility and speed of modern life employing exegetical tools drawn from urban sociology and related fields to determine the significance of representations of anxiety within metropolitan settings Existing scholarship has tended to treat suspense as a technique of temporal delay and the thriller as a formal genre Quite differently this study reads key literary cinematic and televisual narratives in relation to epochal transformations of society from industrialization and modernity to globalization placing emphasis on the intersection of modern transport and identity It is a phenomenon the sociologist Hartmut Rosa has designated social acceleration It becomes evident through the classical modernist and postmodernist phases of the thriller while the meaning of suspense changes according to the velocity and spatial compressions resulting from technological change The audience for the book will be students instructors and researchers in literary studies film studies and media studies as well as researchers in sociology and critical theory
