scientists or philosophers come together to explore the future of society in the context of AI. Many aspects of AI are now the subject of peer-reviewed academic research, including the increasing use of Chatbots and GenAI in academe and in society at large. The conference was initially launched in 2019 as the European Conference on Artificial Intelligence and Robotics. After a successful inaugural event in Oxford, the conference fell victim to Covid and the following three years were held online. Time was taken in 2023 to refocus this fast-developing area of research, and the name of the conference was changed this year to the International Conference on Artificial Intelligence. The Proceedings of the 2025 edition of the conference include academic research papers, PhD research papers, Masters Research papers, and work-in-progress papers, all of which have been presented and discussed at the ICAIR 2025 conference. The proceedings are of an academic level appropriate to a professional research audience, including graduates, postgraduates, doctoral, and post-doctoral researchers. All papers have been double-blind peer-reviewed by members of the Review Committee.

Reimagining Graduate Education in Writing Studies Kirsti Cole, Sarah Henderson Lee, 2026-04-03. Reimagining Graduate Education in Writing Studies explores the development of sustainable, equitable, and interdisciplinary graduate programs within Writing Studies. Proposing five key benchmarks of sustainability in graduate education: accessibility, diversity, interdisciplinary design, situatedness, and professionalization, each chapter speaks to one or more of these benchmarks, offering solutions grounded in both theory and empirical data. The contributors use ethnographic narrative and research-informed approaches to provide readers with innovative ways to address the pressing challenges of graduate education in Writing Studies. The central theme of sustainability, defined in this context as the ability to create adaptable, equitable, and resilient programs in response to institutional and economic challenges, runs through each chapter, and the volume provides actionable frameworks for fostering sustainability in Writing Studies graduate education by offering practical, research-based strategies. Bringing together diverse perspectives from Rhetoric and Composition, TESOL, Linguistics, English Education, Technical Communication, and Writing Centers, this book will appeal to instructors, students, and researchers working in these areas.

Artificial Intelligence: From Zero To Practical Use Kael Novera, 2025-11-04. Artificial Intelligence: From Zero To Practical Use is no longer the future; it is the present. In this accessible and engaging guide, Kael Novera takes readers on a journey that transforms curiosity into practical knowledge. In a clear and human way, the book explains what AI is, how it came about, how it works, and how to apply it in everyday life, even if you have never used it before. Using simple language and real-life examples, the author shows how AI is changing careers, businesses, and habits, revealing essential tools such as ChatGPT, Midjourney, Copilot, and more. Throughout the chapters, readers learn how to use technology to increase productivity, stimulate creativity, and create new opportunities without needing to know how to program. More than a technical manual, this is a guide to personal and professional transformation, teaching you how to think smart in the digital age. Master AI practice and see real results.
