

PORTFOLIO SUMMATIVE REFLECTION

SAMPLE

As I reflect upon the four years worth of work in my portfolio, I can't help but feel a sense of accomplishment and pride. My journey through high school has not been without many trials and tribulations; however, I feel that my growth as an individual and student is a direct result of these experiences. The entries I have chosen to include in my showcase portfolio not only demonstrate proficiency in academic skills, such as reading, writing, problem solving, and oral communication, but also illustrate my story of growth. |

Comments: Context set throughout first paragraph – story of growth.

I entered the 9th grade as a somewhat shy student. I always received decent grades in Middle School but my confidence in my academic skills, especially in writing and oral communication, was lacking. I always had a difficult time getting my ideas down on paper and it would take me hours to write a three-paragraph essay. And, as far as getting up in front of the class, I was terrified. My hands would shake, I would sweat profusely, and I could never seem to get the words out without stuttering or losing my train of thought. Therefore, I was a little nervous entering high school, knowing I would be doing these types of work more often and on a bigger scale. I knew it was going to be tough, but I persevered. The first entry in my showcase portfolio is a good example of the humble beginnings of my journey. The entry is my 10th grade Modern World History common task entitled "God, Gold, and Glory" in which I had to write a response to informational text regarding the effects of New World discovery on the native American population. I chose this piece not because it is my best piece of writing, but it was my first piece of writing in high school to meet proficiency. Even though the essay barely met the standard (I still had problems with analyzing the documents beyond their literal meaning), I was
