

Conditionals

Zero conditional is used to express general truths that are always real and scientific facts where the condition is certain to happen.

If-clause: if / when + present simple

If you touch boiling water,

Main clause: present simple

you get burned

First conditional is used to express possible events in the present or future.

If-clause: if + present simple

If I go to Japan,

Main clause: future simple (will) / modal verbs (can, may, might, should, could, must) + bare infinitive

I will bring you souvenirs

Second conditional is used to express an unreal event that is not certain to happen in the present or future.

If-clause: if + past simple / past continuous

If I had more time,

Main clause: would / might / could + bare infinitive

I would attend the event.

Third conditional is used to express an unreal event in the past and their imagined result.

If-clause: if + past perfect

If I had trained harder,

Main clause: would / might / could + have + past participle

I would have won.
