Democratizing Luxury Annika A. Culver, 2023-12-31 Democratizing Luxury explores the interplay between advertising and consumption in modern Japan by investigating how Japanese companies at key historical moments assigned value or luxury to mass produced products as an important business model Japanese name brand luxury evolved alongside a consumer society emerging in the late nineteenth century with iconic companies whose names became associated with quality and style At the same time Western ideas of modernity merged with earlier artisanal ideals to create Japanese connotations of luxury for readily accessible products Businesses manufactured items at all price points to increase consumer attainability while starkly curtailing production for limited editions to augment desirability Between the late nineteenth and twenty first centuries control over family disposable income transformed Japanese middle class women into an important market Growth of purchasing power among women corresponded with Japanese goods diffusing throughout the empire and globally after the Asia Pacific war 1931-1945 This book offers case studies that examine affordable luxury consumer items
