Dynamics of Meteor Outbursts and Satellite Mitigation Strategies Glenn E. Peterson, 1999 The potential threat posed by Leonid meteoroids to orbiting spacecraft over the next several years calls for new dynamic mitigation strategies to assist the satellite community in reducing the danger to its vehicles This book offers deliberate dynamic mitigation strategies to complement the traditional shielding strategies providing mission operators additional ways to decrease the danger Five different attitude control and orbit maneuvering options are examined in detail The information is presented in algorithmic form to allow technically competent but meteoroid inexperienced operators to easily understand the phenomena assess the danger and implement procedures Although general in scope the book emphasizes the Leonid meteor events of the 1998 2002 timeframe

Dare to Believe! Terence Ascott, 2021-05-06 Dare to Believe is the breathtaking story of someone who has followed Jesus lead through civil wars and unrest arrests and deportation as he sought to effectively use media in support of the life work and witness of the church in the Middle East and North Africa The book journeys from the publication of a Christian newsstand magazine for the Arab world to the birth of the region s first Christian satellite and online television services attracting millions of viewers from all faith backgrounds and ages unlike Christian television as we may have seen it in the West Readers will discover and be encouraged by dynamic and courageous Christian communities in the Arab world Iran and Turkey some of whom date the founding of their churches back to the first century and how God provides for his children and his ministry even through difficult times

Transnational Television in Europe Jean K. Chalaby, 2009-02-19 Today transnational TV networks count among television s most prestigious brands and rank among Europe s leading TV channels This is the first dynamically told story of the extraordinary journey of transnational television in Europe from struggling origins to its present day boom It is based in extensive research into the international television industry and makes full use of its author s remarkable access to leading industry figures from Sky and Turner to Discovery and BBC World The tale begins with a few cross border TV channels who fought hostile governments faced antagonism from the broadcasting establishment and provoked the contempt of advertisers But Jean Chalaby argues the planets came into alignment for pan European television in the late 1990s when a transnational shift in European broadcasting was produced He shows how transnational television and globalization have transformed one another and how transfrontier TV networks reflect and help sustain a global economic order in which the connection between national territory and patterns of production and distribution have broken down

Strange Spaces André Jansson, 2016-12-05 Certain bizarre spaces where disruption or disarray rule leave us estranged and out of place This book examines such spaces highlighting the emotional and mediated geographies of uncertainty and the state of being in between of cognitive displacement loss fear or exhilaration It expands on why space is sometimes estranging and for whom it is strange It is the first book to link strangeness and spatial production as well as empirical explorations of strange spaces within a profound theoretical discussion of what is strange about strange spaces and how they evolve in a modern media age
