The Shadows Partitions:

In the Shadow of Partition Nalini Iyer, Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2024-12-02 This book brings together conversations about the Partition and its haunting residues in the present as represented in literary visual oral and material cultures of the subcontinent and beyond The seventy fifth anniversary of Partition confronts scholars with significantly new subjects for reflection The question of historical memory has now largely transformed to one of its reproductions through mass politics and mass media and perhaps professional academic inquiry while the very meaning or value of Independence is in crisis This edited volume includes chapters on representations of partition experiences and the re drawing of the subcontinent s political map While the impact of the partition of the Punjab has been the focus of much scholarly studies in the past and Bengal to a smaller extent this collection extends the examination of the impact of this political event elsewhere in other communities in the subcontinent and across other differentials This book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Indian history Partition studies literature popular culture and performance postcolonial studies and South Asian studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asian Review
