The Marketing of Terrorism. Analysing the Use of Social Media by ISIS Lisa Wiechert, 2017-06-02 Social media has played a central role in the digital era for almost a century influencing almost all aspects of life The use of social media in warfare is threatening not only one country but the whole global community is a recent development The famous speech by Abu Muhammad al Adnani on social media inspired the bloody month of Ramadan in 2016 and showed the deadly power of social media inspired attacks and what the Islamic State is capable of achieving Although the terrorist group has lost territory over the last few weeks of combat both in Syria and Iraq and is on the edge of losing their main capital Mosul IS still remains a hybrid threat Consisting of military powers and an unmatched affinity of using social media as a cyber war weapon IS will continue to be a severe danger to the global community This book aims to foster a deeper understanding of the use of social media for recruiting efforts by the so called Islamic State IS and to analyse its propaganda methods in order to develop possible countermeasures A special focus will be put on the method of recruitment of young Western foreign fighters These individuals are the easiest to recruit for ISIS and pose the greatest risk to the global community especially in regards to home grown terrorism and so called lone wolf attacks Since this area of research is very new and quickly evolving the field still needs extensive research It is difficult to analyse the use of social media content by the Islamic State due to limited information access and flow encryption propaganda verification and inconsistency The Islamic State is a military threat on the battleground as well as a potential cyber threat for the international community Despite these challenging circumstances this book will provide a new theoretical model based on the marketing model of a customer journey in connection with the main principles of storytelling Ultimately this research work will try to provide experts with a new and modern approach of analysis as a base for possible counter measures to weaken and combat the current threat posed by the Islamic State From the text Islamic State Terrorism Social Media Propaganda Institutions Radicalisation Salesmen in Marketing Strategy Leverett Samuel Lyon,1926 The McGraw-Hill 36-Hour Course: Online Marketing Lorrie Thomas,2011-01-07 A crash course on the most dynamic marketing platform today Online marketing has evolved far beyond flashy websites and banner ads shouting at customers about your product It s about using an array of Internet tools to build credibility and visibility spread your message and form meaningful customer relationships The McGraw Hill 36 Hour Course Online Marketing puts you on the fast track to harnessing the power of the Web for your marketing goals It begins with planning and building a website and then provides in depth coverage of essential online marketing tools and techniques such as Content marketing and blogging Social media marketing Web analytics Search Engine Optimization SEO E mail marketing Online Public Relations Earn a Certificate of Achievement Through A Free OnlineExamination The McGraw Hill 36 Hour Course Online Marketing spells it all out in easy to understand terms and actionable steps You re already on your way to Web marketing mastery Analysis and Evaluation of Market Entry Modes into the Asia-Pacific Region Thomas Andexer,2008-08-25 Diploma Thesis from the year 2006 in the subject Business economics Supply Production Logistics grade Sehr Gut FH Ober sterreich Campus Steyr Produktion und Management PMT language English abstract The business world at the beginning of the 21st century is characterised by a steadily increasing globalisation and the growth of international business operations The proceeding dynamism of the global markets creates new chances not only for multinational enterprises but also for small and medium sized companies SMEs Particularly the above average economic potential of emerging markets especially in many countries of the Asia Pacific region is amongst others the leading incentive for the increasing number of cross border expansions In this context the decision for the appropriate market entry strategy is already one of the most difficult ones within the broad topic of international marketing whereas the choice of target countries with tremendous cultural differences and the specifics of the industrial goods business respectively lead to an even higher degree of complexity in the decision for the most suitable form of organisation for the international market entry The main task of this thesis was to break down the untargeted theory of the market entry modes to the evaluation of a situational context of a genuine company with the help of abstract focus areas in a step by step approach Starting with a general overview to the topic area of interational marketing and further the alternative market entry modes the thesis introduces three focus areas with an anticipatory relation to the case study The Asia Pacific region SMEs and the industrial goods business stand in the centre of the examination The core of this thesis represents a feasibility study related to the focused perspective in which every market entry mode is investigated in its compatibility with the focus areas The result of the study in other words the identification of all feasible entry mode alternatives regarding the focus areas establishes the basis for the implementation of the case study of the German AdPhos

Plc a medium sized company in the industrial goods business and its penetration of new markets in Asia As the second core part of this thesis follows the evaluation of AdPhos market entry decision with means of a scoring model whereas AdPhos decision for a strategic alliance is confronted with all other feasible market entry alternatives The hereby extracted results deliver information to the suitability of the chosen organisation form regarding the individual situation of the company and finally enable the derivation of appropriate recommendations

A Corpus-based Critical Discourse Analysis Seda Evirgen,2021-05-04 Master s Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1 0 Justus Liebig University Giessen language English abstract The thesis at hand puts a special emphasis on the use of persuasive language in online native advertisements from The New York Times After careful examination the corpus will be compiled of three native advertisements from the field of technology by the sponsors Intel Dropbox and Slack The limitation to these native advertisements and persuasive linguistic devices and techniques was necessary with regard to the scope of this thesis As no linguistic analysis of native advertisements could be found there also was no reference to follow Therefore the thesis at hand lays the foundation for further research in this area The aim is to conduct a corpus based Critical Discourse Analysis in order to investigate and answer two main questions 1 Do online native advertisements make use of the same persuasion methods as previously researched for other advertising types 2 What are the most prominent persuasive linguistic devices and techniques in the online native advertisements from The New York Times In addition to the CDA the corpus based approach is expected to provide quantitative evidence of the existence of discourse and to identify repetitive linguistic patterns of persuasive language use in native advertising The thesis will be structured as follows First the theoretical framework provides general information about the functions and characteristics of advertising while further focusing on native advertisement and the language of advertising It continues with explaining the concept of persuasive language on the basis of ethos logos and pathos and introduces some powerful persuasive techniques in advertisement Further linguistic devices of persuasive language on the phonetic lexical morphological and syntactic level will be defined Additionally the concept of Critical Discourse Analysis will be explained in detail as the thesis at hand follows the CDA framework of Fairclough The data collection method and data analysis procedure will be outlined in Chapter 3 This is followed by an analysis of three online native advertisements from the publisher The New York Times After the analysis the results will be presented and evaluated in order to assess the hypothesis Finally the conclusion provides a summary of the findings and suggests further research opportunities

Managing Content Marketing: The Real-World Guide for Creating Passionate Subscribers to Your Brand Robert Rose, Joe Pulizzi, 2011-08-01 Perhaps no function in the business organization has been as fundamentally revolutionized as marketing The social and mobile Web has completely changed the speed efficiency and ease with which consumers can engage with each other and has had a tremendous impact on brands This new engagement of the consumer with keen awareness of their relationships and emerging social networks now correlates to every single aspect of our business So yes marketing has changed The question is what are we going to do about it Content and Subscription The New Marketing Opportunity As growth of the social and mobile Web changes the methods of communication the old lines of hierarchical relationships between business and consumer blur substantially As consumers publish and share their opinions both good and bad with increasing ease they can become more persuasive than even the company's voice itself Every one of these groups becomes a powerful ally or enemy depending on what we do All of them will be constantly in flux developing levels of trust and requiring varying levels of transparency to filter content and determine buying decisions They will expand and collapse with great velocity and it will all happen with or without our participation Content marketing has been around for hundreds of years But the application of a specific strategic process around content marketing is still new The amount of budget that is allotted for new content creation is going to become a significant part of your new media budget And subject matter experts in the organization are going to have new responsibilities It's a transformative new process and it won't happen overnight. But it can and should happen. Get Content Get Customers showed us the light but there's been no book to show us the way. There is an ancient Chinese proverb that says a crisis is simply an opportunity riding the dangerous wind. As marketers we now have the opportunity to develop new processes with our marketing strategy power them with content and ultimately keep that wind at our back. Successful programs will focus on creating a thoughtful strategy and process to foster this content marketing. This book is a detailed how-to to build that successful content marketing process.
