Blade Runner is a 1982 American dystopian science fiction thriller film directed by Ridley Scott and starring Harrison Ford, Rutger Hauer, Sean Young and Edward James Olmos. The film performed poorly in North American theaters but has since become a cult film.^[2] It has been hailed for its production design, depicting a "retrofitted" future,^[3] and remains a leading example of the neo-noir genre. It brought the work of Philip K. Dick to the attention of Hollywood and several later films were based on his work.^[4] Ridley Scott regards Blade Runner as "probably" his most complex and personal film. In 1993, the film was selected for preservation in the United States National Film Registry by the Library of Congress as being "culturally,
