Bodies in the Backyard Brian O'Neill, 1993 Bodies in the Back Garden - True Stories of Brutal Murders Close to Home Nigel Cawthorne, 2014-08-07 For the killer there is always the problem of getting rid of the body Muswell Hill murderer Dennis Nilsen famously cooked the corpses of his victims in Cranley Gardens and flushed them down the lavatory only to be caught when the sewers blocked up But his first twelve victims were disposed of in the back garden of his previous home in Melrose Avenue Fred and Rosemary West buried the bodies of three of their victims in the back garden of the House of Horrors at 25 Cromwell Street Milwaukee cannibal Jeffrey Dahmer began his murderous career scattering human remains in the backyard of his parents home in Bath Ohio Convicted killer Peter Tobin went back on trial after two more bodies were found in the back garden of his former home in Margate And grisly granny Dorothea Puente murdered lodgers at her boarding house in Sacramento California dispatching them to the backyard while continuing to cash their Social Security cheques This book explores these and many other cases that suggest that whatever the motive for murder the back garden is a convenient place to dump the corpse The Mexican drug cartels use it So do drug dealers in London and sex killers in France Benjamin Laing who killed a father and daughter to steal a 7 000 car went one step further burying the bodies of his victims in the back garden of his girlfriend s house in Abbey Wood She called the police His crime she decided had come just a little bit too close to home

The World of Physical Culture in Sport and Exercise Cassandra Phoenix, Brett Smith, 2013-09-13 Within qualitative research in the social sciences the last decade has witnessed a growing interest in the use of visual methods Visual Methods in Physical

Culture is the first book in the field of sport and exercise sciences dedicated to harnessing the potential of using visual methods within qualitative research. Theoretically insightful and methodologically innovative, this book represents a landmark addition to the field of studies in sport, exercise, the body, and qualitative methods. It covers a wide range of empirical work, theories, and visual image-based research, including photography, drawing, and video. In so doing, the book deepens our understanding of physical culture. It also responds to key questions such as: what are visual methods? why might they be used? and how might they be applied in the field of sport and exercise sciences? This volume combines clarity of expression with careful scholarship and originality, making it especially appealing to students and scholars within a variety of fields, including sport, sociology, sport and exercise psychology, sociology of the body, physical education, gender studies, gerontology, and qualitative inquiry. This book was published as a special issue in Qualitative Research in Sport and Exercise. The Orphans Fiona McIntosh, 2022-10-05. Orphan Fleur Appleby is adopted by a loving undertaker and his wife, and she quickly develops a special gift for helping bereaved families. Her ambition to be the first female mortician in the country is fuelled by her plan to bring more women into the male-dominated funeral industry. Raised in the outback of South Australia's Flinders Ranges, Tom Catchlove is faced with a life-changing tragedy as a young boy. He works hard but dreams big, striving for a future as a wool classer. A chance encounter between the two children will change the course of their lives. By adulthood, Fleur finds herself fighting for the survival of the family's business while her widowed father drinks away generations of prosperity, and a new conniving stepmother wants Fleur gone. When Tom emerges from the isolation of the desert to find new work at the port woolstores, his path crosses with Fleur's again, only to be caught up in a murder investigation in which they can only trust each other. At once tragic and triumphant, The Orphans is an unforgettable story about a unique bond between two children that will echo down the years and teach them both about the real meaning of life, of loss, and of love. Flawless Australian Women's Weekly. California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State).
