Review Richard Collier And Sally Sheldon Eds:

Violence Against Women under European Human Rights Law Elena Brodeală, Ivana Jelić, Silvia Şuteu, 2024-12-09 This timely book analyzes recent developments and key questions related to violence against women under European human rights law including the European Convention of Human Rights the European Social Charter and EU Law instruments It examines supranational standards and their complex interplay with national legal orders and realities What is The Family of Law? Alan Brown, 2019-02-07 This book argues that the legal understanding of family in the UK continues to be underpinned by the idealised image of the nuclear family premised upon the traditional gendered roles of father as breadwinner and mother as homemaker This examination of the law's model of the family has been prompted by the substantial reforms that have taken place in family law in recent decades and the significant evolution in social attitudes and familial practices that has occurred in parallel Throughout the book the influence of the nuclear family is noted in several different contexts various specific legal definitions of family the legal regulation of adult conjugal relationships the attribution of legal parenthood and the construction of the role of the parent within the law Ultimately this book argues that while these reforms have resulted in additional categories of relationship coming to be situated within the nuclear family model there has not as yet been any fundamental alteration of the underpinning concept of the nuclear family itself This book concludes by considering the possibilities offered beyond the nuclear family exploring the reconceptualising of the legal understanding of family around alternative and potentially radical models of family Northern / Irish Feminist Judgments Máiréad Enright, Julie McCandless, Aoife O'Donoghue, 2017-02-09 The Northern Irish Feminist Judgments Project inaugurates a fresh dialogue on gender legal judgment judicial power and national identity in Ireland and Northern Ireland Through a process of judicial re-imagining the project takes account of the peculiarly Northern Irish concerns in shaping gender through judicial practice This collection following on from feminist judgments projects in Canada England and Australia takes the feminist judging methodology in challenging new directions This book collects 26 rewritten judgments covering a range of substantive areas As well as opinions from appellate courts the book includes first instance decisions and a fictional review of a Tribunal of Inquiry Each feminist judgment is accompanied by a commentary putting the case in its social context and explaining the original decision The book also includes introductory chapters examining the project methodology constructions of national identity theoretical and conceptual issues pertaining to feminist judging and the legal context of both jurisdictions The book shines a light on past and future possibilities and limitations for judgment on the island of Ireland This book provides a rich and expansive addition to the feminist judgments catalogue The judgments demonstrate powerfully how Northern Irish judges have contributed to the gendered politics of national identity and how the narrow subject positions they have created for women and others could have been so much wider and more open Professor Rosemary Hunter School of Law Queen Mary University London The Northern Irish Feminist Judgments Project is inspirational reading for anyone interested in feminism or Irish studies It is a model of how to conduct feminist enquiry Its most innovative contribution to scholarship and politics is how the rewriting of landmark legal judgments from a feminist perspective allows us to imagine and therefore begin to construct a more egalitarian a more just future Associate Professor Katherine O Donnell School of Philosophy University College Dublin If you let it this book will make you think It made me think it reminded me I suppose that legal writing can be wonderful rigorous creative deeply observant provocative Read it and see what it makes you think Professor Th r se Murphy School of Law Queen s University Belfast

Fragmenting Fatherhood Richard Collier, Sally Sheldon, 2008-09 Debates about the future of fatherhood have been central to a range of conversations about changing family forms parenting and society Law has served an important yet often neglected role in these discussions serving as an important focal point for broader political frustrations playing a central role in mediating disputes and operating as a significant symbolic state sanctioned account of the scope of paternal rights and responsibilities Fragmenting Fatherhood provides the first sustained engagement with the way that fatherhood has been understood constructed and regulated within English law Drawing on a range of disparate legal provisions and material from diverse disciplines it sketches the major contours of the figure of the father as drawn in law and social policy tracing shifts in legal and broader understandings of what it means to be a father and what rights and obligations should accrue to that status In thematically linked chapters cutting across substantive areas of law the book locates fatherhood as a key site of contestation within broader political debates regarding the family and gender equality Multiple visions of fatherhood evolving unevenly over time across diverse areas of law emerge from this analysis Fatherhood is revealed as an essentially fragmented status and one which is intertwined in complex ways with the legal cultural and political contexts in which discourses of parenthood are produced Fragmenting Fatherhood provides an important and unique resource speaking to debates about fatherhood across a range of fields including law and legal theory sociology gender studies social policy marriage and the family women s studies and gender studies Alberta Law Review ,2009 The Times Index ,2009 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Current Law Index ,2006 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1920 Time: Annual 2002: The Year in Review Editors of Time Magazine,2002-02-01 The TIME 2002 ANNUAL provides the best journalism available on the years top stories including the attack on America other world events politics science and technology health and education arts and entertainment and milestones The New York Times Review of Books ,1968 Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Halliwell's Film, Video & DVD Guide ,2008 Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1980 Books in Print ,1981 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1980 The Journal of Social, Political, and Economic Studies ,1995 Bookseller and Stationery Trades' Journal ,1966 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series
