Writing From the Margins Kristine E. Pytash, 2017-09-01 The book is a critical examination of the complex role of writing in court-involved young adults' lives. The purpose of this book is to provide an in-depth look at how writing might possibly be the best opportunity to give students multiple tools to deal with their circumstances in life, to give them a voice to express themselves, an opportunity to recognize their strengths, a way to document their aspirations, and a chance to give them hope. Furthermore, this book will advocate for literacy instruction that is grounded in research and will advocate for youth to be creative meaning makers, and finally, this book will underscore the power of writing as a way to amplify beliefs and life experiences. This book includes current research that supports a framework for teaching writing, particularly for those youth who are marginalized and disenfranchised while considering the meaning of equity in education
