110 Mistakes Working Women Make and how to Avoid Them JoAnna Nicholson, 1995. Gives sound advice for the fabulous, successful, and smart-dressed woman of the 90s.

Looking Good . . . Every Day Nancy Nix-Rice, 2014-09-01. Any woman can look and feel lovely regardless of her age, bank balance, or pant size, and Looking Good Every Day defines a simple yet sophisticated standard for women to determine exactly which clothes and accessories will showcase their unique beauty. The points-of-connection method explains that the more characteristics that exist in common between a woman and her outfit, the more lovely she will look. It shifts emphasis from hiding her perceived figure challenges and focuses on spotlighting her personal assets. By choosing wardrobe additions in this way, everything in her closet will work together. She has more outfits from fewer garments, allowing her to buy higher quality garments without increasing her budget. Photography of real women ranging from 22 to 80 years old and from size 4 to 24 illustrates the universal impact points of connection make in their appearance.

Fashion and Motherhood Laura Snelgrove, 2024-01-25. Motherhood, whether achieved through biological or other means, is not a rare experience; dressing oneself, even less so. The two phenomena are intimately linked as both occur on and to the private body and are also fully subject to social pressures and the changing tides of public opinion. They also, for anyone who experiences motherhood, define one another and work together to shape an individual's identity and place in their culture. This rich collection explores the essential question of how motherhood and fashion interact, interrogating their relationships to power, misogyny, temporality, longing, and embodiment among other themes. The 13 essays examine representations on film, in popular print, and literature; they use images, narrative, and material evidence from the past to excavate the historical cleavages in how mothers have been expected to hide, display, share, and sacrifice their bodies. An international range of scholars explores the 19th to the 21st centuries, tracing how fashion and motherhood have operated as powerfully interdependent experiences and continue to determine how women are judged and corralled, yet also find meaning, connection, and strength.
