Oparinde,2022-10-07 Given the high degree of immigration in the current world institutions of higher learning are increasingly hosting people of various different cultures and nationalities as employees and students It has thus become important for universities to invest in their human capital by equipping employees and students with the necessary skills to meet the demands of their institutional diversity in a bid to become culturally flexible in the current multicultural context of higher education across the world This book is an academic adventure that addresses issues of communication and interculturality in higher education It provides rigorous details and several contexts through which to understand intercultural communication in higher institutions The book unpacks a number of barriers with contextual references central to understanding contexts in which intercultural encounters take place in higher institutions It shows how institutions of higher learning can be a great vehicle for building intercultural awareness and competence and provides robust discussions of culture and the possible barriers that could affect intercultural relationships in higher institutions Cognition,

Emotion and Consciousness in Modernist Storyworlds Margrét Gunnarsdóttir Champion,2022-11-25 This volume brings together contributions from scholars across the globe interested in the representation of embodied minds in literary texts ranging from George Eliot to Hilary Mantel It focuses specifically on the experimental formalism of canonical modernism as well as on innovative works in literary history which interface with avant garde poetics Approaching textual aspects such as time and space character gender the social mind and readers participation through the parameters of cognition emotion and consciousness the contributions here will broaden the reader s understanding of the nexus between mind and narrative as well as of how the modernist aesthetic enriches the conditions of that nexus Significantly the book also collectively illustrates how experientiality considered by many narratologists to be equal to narrativity to the very ontology of narrative remains a cross generic phenomenon an inherent feature of poetry and documentary reporting no less than of the novel proper

Polarization and Deep Contestations Tanja A. Börzel,Thomas Risse,Stephanie B. Anderson,Jean A. Garrison,2024-10-29 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Academic and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations This book explores the deep contestations of the liberal script in the contemporary United States from a variety of perspectives US democracy today is in crisis because of a profound ideological and affective polarization The chapters in this volume show that Donald Trump s grip on the Republican Party is a symptom and a catalyst but not the cause of the contemporary contestations of the liberal script in the US To discern their major drivers from a longue dur e perspective each chapter takes a step back and asks three main questions 1 How can we best describe the current contestations of the liberal script in the US exploring the extent to which the US is unique in comparison to other liberal democracies facing similar contestations 2 What are the main drivers and root causes that explain the current contestations and the crisis of American democracy they may precipitate 3 What are the likely consequences for the future of American democracy The conclusions do not lead us to expect a return to the norm of internal contestations of the liberal script that are common in liberal democracies and have characterized the US throughout its history. Political economic and cultural polarization is by now deeply entrenched in American society and is eroding mutual toleration as the basis of American democracy. In other words, the resilience of US liberal democracy is at stake. It is unlikely that we will see the US liberal script bounce back in the near future. This volume has emerged from research carried out as part of the Cluster of Excellence Contestations of the Liberal Script SCRIPTS which analyzes the contemporary controversies about liberal ideas, institutions and practices on the national and international level from a historical, global and comparative perspective. It connects academic expertise in the social sciences and area studies and collaborates with research institutions in all world regions. Operating since 2019 and funded by the German Research Foundation DFG, SCRIPTS unites eight major Berlin-based research institutions: Freie Universität Berlin, the Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, the Berlin Social Science Center WZB, the Hertie School, the German Institute for Economic Research DIW, the Berlin branch of the German Institute of Global and Area Studies GIGA, the Centre for East European and International Studies ZOiS and the Leibniz Zentrum Moderner Orient ZMO.
