Écrits A Selection:

Écrits Jacques Lacan, 2001 Genius and charismatic leader of a psychoanalytic movement that in the 1950s and 1960s provided a focal point for the French intelligentsia Jacques Lacan attracted a cult following Écrits is his most important work bringing together twenty seven articles and lectures originally published between 1936 and 1966 Following its first publication the book gained Lacan international attention and exercised a powerful influence on contemporary intellectual life To this day Lacan's radical brilliant and complex ideas continue to be highly influential in everything from film theory to art history and literary criticism Écrits is the essential source for anyone who seeks to understand this seminal thinker and his influence on contemporary thought and culture Écrits a Selection Jacques Lacan, 2004 A major new translation of one of the most influential psychoanalytic works of modern times Brilliant and innovative Jacques Lacan's work has had a tremendous influence on contemporary discourse Lacan lies at the epicenter of contemporary discourses about otherness subjectivity sexual difference the drives the law and enjoyment Yet his seemingly impenetrable writing style has kept many a reader from venturing beyond page one This new translation of selected writings from his most famous work offers welcome access to nine of his most significant contributions to psychoanalytic theory and technique Ranging from The Mirror Stage to The Subversion of the Subject and the Dialectic of Desire in the Freudian Unconscious and including The Function and Field of Speech and Language in Psychoanalysis and other papers on various aspects of psychoanalytic theory and practice this selection spans some thirty years of Lacan's inimitable intellectual career

Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Lorens Holm, 2022-09-30 Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Shadowing the Public Realm methodically outlines key concepts in psychoanalytic discourse by reading them against key modern and post modern architects It begins with what is arguably the central concept for each discipline by putting the unconscious in a dialectic relation to space Each subsequent chapter begins with a detail in architectural discourse a kind of provocation that anchors each excursion into the thought of Freud and Lacan The text is cyclical episodic and cloudlike rather than expository the intention is not simply to explain the concept of the unconscious but to different degrees perform it in the text The book offers powerful critiques of current planning practice which has no tools to address our attachment to places It concludes with powerful critiques of our incapacity to change the environmentally damaging ways we live our lives which is an effect of our incapacity to recognise the presence of the death drive in our nature The text is an extended thesis spanning the chapters that the field of the Other is the common grammar that organises subjects into civilisations which has consequences for how we treat the public realm in architecture politics and the city The field of the Other is a slightly different slice through the urban social world It shadows but does not correspond exactly to more familiar categories like private public inside outside figure ground or piazza boulevard Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan will be an essential resource to anyone interested in how the environment we build is a reflection of our desire Psychoanalysis is one of the great humanist discourses of the 20th century and this book will be a valuable reference to the humanist in architects planners and social scientists whether they are students professionals or amateurs It will appeal to historians of the 20th century and to psychoanalysts and architects who are interested in how their respective discourses interdigitate with each other and with other discourses Enclitic ,1981

The Psychotheology of Sin and Salvation Paul V. Axton,2015-10-22 Through the employment of the work of Slavoj i ek and his engagement with the Apostle Paul Axton argues that Paul in Romans 6 8 understands sin as a lie grounding the subject outside of Christ and salvation is an exposure and displacement of this lie The theological significance of i ek along with Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan is his demonstration of the pervasive and systemic nature of this lie and its description as he finds it in Romans 7 The specific overlap of the two disciplines of psychology and theology is found in the psychoanalytic understanding that the human Subject or the psyche is structured in three registers the symbolic the imaginary and the real These three registers function like a lie analogous to the Pauline categories of law ego and the body of death which constitute Paul s dynamic of sin s deception Axton argues that if sin is understood as a lie grounding the Subject the exposure of the lie or the dispelling of any notion of mystery connected to sin is integral to salvation and the reconstructing of the Subject in Christ While the lie of sin is mediated by the law new life in the Spirit is not through the law but is a principle unto itself which though it accounts for the law is beyond the law Nonrepresentational Forms of the Comic Marcella Tarozzi Goldsmith,1991 This book examines three different comical forms humor irony and jokes from the philosophical and the ethical points of view The theme connects these forms in their linguistic expression but distinguishes them by pointing out the differences in their social function The result of this analysis is that humor reveals itself as being the least social form of the comic while jokes reflect the highest level of socialization Examination of the social function of the comic highlights the rapport between the comical form and transgressive modes of expression The Mammy Fantasy Maria Seymour St. John,2004 Ecrits: A Selection Jacques Lacan,2020-10-28 Genius and charismatic leader of a psychoanalytic movement that in the 1950s and 1960s provided a focal point for the French intelligentsia Jacques Lacan attracted a cult following Ecrits is his most important work bringing together twenty seven articles and lectures originally published between 1936 and 1966 Following its first publication in 1966 the book gained Lacan international attention and exercised a powerful influence on contemporary intellectual life To this day Lacan s radical brilliant and complex ideas continue to be highly influential in everything from film theory to art history and literary criticism Ecrits is the essential source for anyone who seeks to understand this seminal thinker and his influence on contemporary thought and culture A Compendium of Lacanian Terms Huguette Glowinski,Zita M. Marks,Sara Murphy,2001 Jacques Lacan 1901 81 was one of the most original and controversial thinkers of the post war period His ideas had a profound effect on the intellectual movements of his time and his work is of continuing importance to a wide range of disciplines psychoanalytic theory and practice literary criticism critical social theory linguistics cinema art criticism and political science Lacan s ideas can however be notoriously difficult convoluted idiosyncratic arcane and almost always obscure A Compendium of Lacanian Terms provides students of Lacan with a clear and helpful exposition on some 40 key terms Each entry outlines the conceptualization of the idea locating it within Lacanian discourse and the evolution of the term within the development of Lacan s ideas A list of references is provided at the end of each entry The editors brief essay like descriptions of key Lacanian terms are a superb idea much needed in both academic and clinical arenas of psychoanalytic world Choice Jan 2002 Lacanian Ink ,2006 Arachnē ,1996 Envy Richard H. Smith,2008 For centuries scholars have argued that envy is the source of much aggressive behavior as well as the root cause of much unhappiness but it is only recently that there have been attempts to examine the emotion from an empirical perspective This book is the first of its kind to offer a comprehensive summary of current theoretical and empirical work on envy provided by scholars from a range of disciplines The first section of the book focuses on the rich theological philosophical and evolutionary foundations of scholarly thinking on envy The second section covers the social psychological work on envy and includes chapters on social comparison processes definitional challenges the link between envy and schadenfreude intergroup envy and fear of envy The third section covers research on envy from organizational psychology experimental economics marketing neuroscience and anthropology The fourth section focuses on the implications of understanding envy for physical and mental health with chapters on psychoanalytic conceptions of envy health psychology and the challenges of coping with envy A final chapter consists of reflective comments on all the chapters and brings together recurring themes and makes suggestions for future research on envy French Structuralism Joan M. Miller,1981 Feminism and Psychoanalysis Jane Gallop,1982 Research in Phenomenology ,1983 Gynesis Alice Jardine,1985 Alice Jardine charts the territories and landscapes of contemporary French thought focusing on such concepts as woman and the feminine and relating them to the problem of modernity Interdisciplinary in her approach she confronts and addresses important psychoanalytic philosophical and fictional texts that are largely the work of male writers Gradiva ,1979 Fits and Starts Martha Noel Evans,1991 Psychoanalysis and the Portrayal of Desire in Twentieth Century Fiction Kristyn Gorton,2006 Explores the concept of desire through psychoanalytic theory From Death Instinct to Attachment Theory Tomas Geyskens,Philippe Van Haute,2007-08-17 From Death Instinct to Attachment Theory offers an answer to an important problem in psychoanalysis and provides new insight into the sort of clinical phenomena that led Freud to move beyond the pleasure principle in the first place BOOK JACKET
