shocking that the name Hindenburg has become synonymous with catastrophe See it for yourself in this graphic novel for young readers Boys' Life ,1996-05 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Monsters Edward Regis,2015-09-08 Oh the humanity Radio reporter Herbert Morrison s words on witnessing the destruction of the Hindenburg are etched in our collective memory Yet while the Hindenburg like the Titanic is a symbol of the technological hubris of a bygone era we seem to have forgotten the lessons that can be learned from the infamous 1937 zeppelin disaster Zeppelins were steerable balloons of highly flammable explosive gas but the sheer magic of seeing one of these behemoths afloat in the sky cast an irresistible spell over all those who saw them In Monsters Ed Regis explores the question of how a technology now so completely invalidated and so fundamentally unsafe ever managed to reach the high risk level of development that it did Through the story of the zeppelin s development Regis examines the perils of what he calls pathological technologies inventions whose sizeable risks are routinely minimized as a result of their almost mystical allure Such foolishness is not limited to the industrial age newer examples of pathological technologies include the US government s planned use of hydrogen bombs for large scale geoengineering projects the phenomenally risky expensive and ultimately abandoned Superconducting Super Collider and the exotic interstellar propulsion systems proposed for DARPA s present day 100 Year Starship project In case after case the romantic appeal of foolishly ambitious technologies has blinded us to their shortcomings dangers and costs Both a history of technological folly and a powerful cautionary tale for future technologies and other grandiose schemes Monsters is essential reading for experts and citizens hoping to see new technologies through clear eyes
