cover Towards the implementation of formal formative assessment in inquiry-based science education in Switzerland Regula Grob,2016-06-29 Inquiry has been an important part of educational theory and practice for the last decades As in other competence oriented approaches to teaching and learning the appropriate support and assessment of the students competences has been much debated in the context of inquiry based science education One way to support and assess students in their learning is formative assessment The concept is also known as assessment for learning which means that the information on the students levels of achievement is not used for grading but for planning the next steps in teaching and learning The use of formative assessment methods as a means of support for students learning is promoted in national and international position papers and reports However in the Swiss teaching practice formative assessment particularly formal formative assessment methods which involve a certain degree of pre definition planning and formality are not widely used nor researched Therefore the focus of this study is on exploring possibilities and challenges for the implementation of formal formative assessment methods in the context of inquiry based science education in Switzerland The emphasis of the study will be on the teacher perspective The World of Dew and Other Stories Julian Mortimer Smith,2021-04-06 Imagine a world populated by hideous trolls time traveling scientists and intergalactic freighter captains with smartphones and social media The World of Dew and Other Stories chosen by Michelle Pretorius as the 2020 Blue Light Books Prize winner invites readers into 18 different universes that have unexpected resonances with our own modern life While these tales are unabashedly sci fi and fantasy Julian Mortimer Smith approaches each at a curious angle Ghosts are cataloged using a Pok mon Go like app a soldier has to get enough upvotes on social media before he is allowed to take a shot and a golden age of cooperation begins as societies around the world prepare for a looming pandemic of blindness In addition to featuring stories that have appeared in some of the world s top speculative fiction outlets The World of Dew and Other Stories also includes five new stories published here for the first time These tales are sometimes terrifying sometimes touching sometimes provocative and occasionally very silly They function both as windows through which readers can glimpse vast universes waiting to be explored and as mirrors reflecting our own reality back at us in a strange and unfamiliar light The Christian Science Journal ,1917 The Journal of Mental Science ,1906 Vol 77 includes Yearbook of the Association 1931 The Science and Practice of Medicine William Aitken,1872
